

TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of tables		VII
List of abbreviations		IX
Preface		XIII
Chapter	I: Introduction	1
Chapter	II: Jewish refugees and the relief organisations
	1. The Netherlands: Government and society in 1933	13
	2. Jewish emigration from Germany	17
	3. Jewish refugees and the Netherlands 1933-40	20
	4. The establishment of Jewish relief organisations	27
	5. The work of the Comité voor Joodsche Vluchtelingen	32
	5.1. Funding and refugee relief
	5.2. Reconstructive assistance	39
	5.3. Retraining and re-emigration	42
Chapter	III: The Dutch government and the refugee problem
	1. Immigration law and its enforcement before 1933	53
	2. Government attitudes and admissions policy in 1933	60
	3. Attempts at restriction 1934-1937	70
	4. Stricter controls 1937-1938	77

VI

	5.	The November pogrom	82
	6.	1939: The refugee camps	88
	7.	International considerations	99
Chapter	IV:	The organisation of relief for political refugees
	1.	Emigration of political refugees to the Netherlands	109
	2.	The German Socialist Party (SPD)	114
	3.	The German Communist Party (KPD)	123
	4.	Other left-wing groups	132
	5.	Conclusion	136
Chapter	V:	The government and the political refugees
	1.	The Dutch government and the political refugees	139
	2.	Political representation of refugees in the Netherlands	158
	3.	German action against emigre and refugee groups	165
	4.	Left-wing refugees and NSDAP activists	170
	5.	Conclusion	176
Chapter	VI:	Conclusion	181
Appendix			192
Notes			193
Bibliography			221
Index			235