

Contents

Meet the authors	vii
How this book works	viii
Learn to learn	xii
The Dutch Language	xiii
Pronunciation and spelling	xxii
1 Ik ben verpleegster I am a nurse introduce others • name some professions • talk about yourself, provide others with information.	2
2 Waar woont u? Where do you live? greet someone and ask how they are • ask for information about someone • ask for and understand directions.	16
3 In de supermarkt In the supermarket go shopping • ask prices • name several kinds of food.	30
4 Zij houdt van moderne kleren She likes modern clothes talk about your family • talk about likes and dislikes in relation to clothes and food • say that something is yours or someone else's.	44
5 Geeft u mij maar een pilsje A lager for me, please order food and drink • discuss what other people would like • discuss relationships.	58
6 Ga je vaak naar de bioscoop? Do you go to the cinema a lot? ask yes and no questions • answer yes and no questions, say what country you are from • fill in a form.	70
7 Wat ga je doen? What are you going to do? how to talk about your interests • how to talk about the week ahead • how to say what you have to do, how to say what you want to do • how to say what you are going to do.	82

8	Dat is stukken duurder That's much more expensive compare things	96
9	Ogenblikje, ik verbind u even door Hold on a moment I'll just put you through arrange to meet somewhere • have a telephone conversation.	106
10	Kom binnen Come in give and follow instructions • understand recipes • talk about the environment.	118
	Answer key	129
	Grammar summary	141
	Dutch–English vocabulary	161
	English–Dutch vocabulary	193