

Contents

List of Illustrations ix

Introduction

Cultural Responses to Disaster in Japan 1

Roy Starrs

PART 1

Cultural Responses to the Triple Disaster of March 2011

- 1 Nature's Blessing, Nature's Wrath
Shinto Responses to the Disasters of 2011 23
Aike P. Rots
- 2 Gods, Dragons, Catfish, and Godzilla
Fragments for a History of Religious Views on Natural Disasters in Japan 50
Fabio Rambelli
- 3 Buddhism
The Perfect Religion for Disasters? 70
Brian Victoria
- 4 Post-3/11 Literature in Japan 91
Roman Rosenbaum
- 5 These Things Here and Now
Poetry in the Wake of 3/11 113
Jeffrey Angles
- 6 'Shake, Rattle and Roll'
Responses to 3/11 – Constructing Community Through Music and the Music Industry 139
Henry Johnson
- 7 Learning that Emerges in Times of Trouble
A Few Cases from Japan 166
Joy Hendry

- 8 Observations on Geomentality in Japan and New Zealand 179
 Kenneth Henshall

PART 2

Towards a Wider Perspective – Japanese Cultural Responses to Earlier Disasters

- 9 'All Shook Up'
 Post-religious Responses to Disaster in Murakami Haruki's after the quake 195
 Jonathan Dil
- 10 Disaster and National Identity
 The Textual Transformations of Japan Sinks 214
 Rebecca Suter
- 11 Belated Arrival in Political Transition
 1950s Films on Hiroshima and Nagasaki 231
 Yuko Shibata
- 12 Hiroshima Rages, Nagasaki Prays
 Nagai Takashi's Catholic Response to the Atomic Bombing 249
 Kevin M. Doak
- 13 The Great Tokyo Earthquake of 1923 and Poetry 272
 Leith Morton
- 14 Proletarian Writers and the Great Tokyo Earthquake of 1923 299
 Mats Karlsson
- 15 The 'Silenced Nexus'
 Female Mediation in Modern Japanese Literature of Disaster 318
 Janice Brown