

Contents

	page
Acknowledgements	vii
List of Abbreviations	ix
Foreword	xi
Preface	xiii
Chapters
1 Introductory: The Sierra Leone Settlement and the Birth of a British African Policy 1787-1840	1
2 The Origins of Liberated African Emigration	34
3 International Reactions	48
4 'Voluntary' Emigration under Government Control 1843-1846	64
5 'Voluntary' Emigration under Government Control: The Growler Scheme and the Hook-MacDonald Conflict 1847-1849	93
6 Labour Recruitment Techniques: The Coastal Squadron and the Vice-Admiralty Courts	199
7 The Hodge Contract and the End of Emigration Policy	136
Conclusion	157
Appendices
I The Smeathman Manifesto	160
II Extracts of the 1844 Secret Memorandum and Instructions to H.M. Officers in Foreign Stations	164
III Slave Trade Treaties: Captain Denman with King Siacca of Gallinas; Captain Tucker with King Pepple of Bonny	167
IV Instructions to Naval Officers, Emigration Agents and Commanders of Emigration Transports	170
V The Hodge Contract Agreements	178
VI Origin of Liberated Africans Introduced into the West Indies	189

VII The African Squadron and the Liberation of Africans; Record of Captures and Emancipation at Sierra Leone 1808-1861	191
Bibliography	215
Index	225
List of Plates	Between pages 136 and 137
1a Bronze model of sailors and an officer in a ship's boat Collection of W. K. Elmhirst Esq.
1b Boats from British warships crossing the bar of Gallinas River
2 The burning of the slave establishments on Solyman River
3a A slave barracoon
3b Capture of a large slave-ship by H.M.S. Pluto
4 & 5 Panoramic views of Freetown 1852; watercolours by Mrs Loetitia Jervis
6 The gates of the Queen's Yard
7 The Court of the Mixed Commission
8 Liberated African Department offices	