

Contents

Foreword	v
Preface	vii
Introduction	1
Part I. The Rise: Transition to Modern Capitalist Economy and the Industrial Revolution
Prologue	15
1. The Demographic Preconditions of Modern Economic Development	16
2. Agrarian Transformation and Modern Agrarian Development	28
3. The Establishment of Modern Credit and a System of Transport	59
4. The Role of the State	81
5. Investments and Foreign Capital	93
6. The Development of Manufacturing Industry and the Modernization of the Economy	112
7. New Trends of Modern Capitalist Development Around the Turn of the Century	156
Part II. Changes and Stagnation in the Twentieth Century: 1914–1949
8. The Consequences of World War I: Disintegration and Reconstruction	171
9. Reconstruction and Its Inherent Contradictions	201
10. The Effect of the World Economic Crisis and the Policy of State Intervention	242
11. German Economic Expansion: Grossraumwirtschaft in East- Central Europe	265
12. Economic Growth and Structural Changes in the Interwar Period	285
13. In the System of the German War Economy	319
14. Postwar Reconstruction	342
Bibliographical Summary	365
Index	399