

Contents

Abbreviations	xi
1. Conclusions	1
2. Resourceful Odysseus	5
Odysseus' name and nature.—The Cyclops.—The incontinent heron.—The Returning Husband. The archery contest.—A north-east wind?—A proto- Odyssey
3. The Odyssey in Context	24
Relationship to the Iliad . Relationship to the Cyclic epics. Non-Trojan epic. Hesiodic poetry. Elegy, iambus.—The contemporary world; dating.—Early reception
4. The Poet and his Art	44
Values.—The gods; destiny.—Poetic merits.—Narrative technique. Typical scenes. Transitions. Similes. Dialogue.—Weaknesses and inconcinnities.—Q as wordsmith. Adaptation of other poets' verses. Re-use of own verses. Brachylogy; unclarity; metre.—Geography.—Where did Q live?
5. The Poem in the Making	92
The overall organization of the poem.—Backgrounds; the Ithacan setting.—The domestic situation.—Telemachos' journey.—Odysseus' wanderings.—The visit to Hades.—Calypso.—The Phaeacians.—The homecoming; Odysseus' battle plan.—The morning after.—Below the surface
6. Proof of the Pudding	143
Bibliography	307
Index	311