Introduction	xiii
LISA A. MARSCH, SARAH E. LORD, AND JESSE DALLERY
SECTION I: Models for Developing Technology-Based Therapeutic Tools Targeting Behavioral Health
1. Technology and the Stage Model of Behavioral Intervention Development LISA S. ONKEN AND VARDA SHOHAM	3
2. Theoretical Models to Inform Technology-Based Health Behavior Interventions WILLIAM T. RILEY	13
SECTION II: Evidence-Based Approaches to Harnessing Technology to Promote Behavioral Health
3. Behavioral Monitoring and Assessment via Mobile Sensing Technologies SANTOSH KUMAR, MUSTAFA AL'ABSI, J. GAYLE BECK, EMRE ERTIN, AND MARCIA S. SCOTT	27
4. Technology-Based Behavioral Interventions for Alcohol and Drug Use Problems AIMEE N.C. CAMPBELL, FREDERICK MUENCH, AND EDWARD V. NUNES	40
5. Using Behavioral Intervention Technologies to Reduce the Burden of Mood and Anxiety Disorders STEPHEN M. SCHUELLER, MIRAJ CHOKSHI, AND DAVID C. MOHR		58
6. Technologies for People with Serious Mental Illness DROR BEN-ZEEV, ROBERT E. DRAKE, AND RACHEL M. BRIAN		70
7. Applying Technology to Medication Management and Adherence LEAH L. ZULLIG, RYAN J. SHAW, AND HAYDEN B. BOSWORTH		81
8. Technological Approaches to Assess and Treat Cigarette Smoking JESSE DALLERY, ALLISON KURTI, AND SARAH MARTNER		95
9. Technology-Based Interventions to Promote Diet, Exercise, and Weight Control CARMINA G. VALLE AND DEBORAH F. TATE		113
10. Evidence-Based Approaches to Harnessing Technology to Provide Social-Emotional Support TIMOTHY BICKMORE		139
SECTION III: Methods for the Evaluation of Technology-Based Behavioral Healthcare
11. mHealth Analytics DANIEL M. SMITH AND THEODORE A. WALLS		153

12. Research Designs to Develop and Evaluate Technology-Based Health Behavior Interventions	168	18. Open Architecture and Standards in Mobile Health	264
JESSE DALLERY, WILLIAM T. RILEY, AND INBAL NAHUM-SHANI		JULIA E. HOFFMAN, KELLY M. RAMSEY, AND DEBORAH ESTRIN
13. Evaluating Mechanisms of Behavior Change to Inform and Evaluate Technology-Based Interventions	187	SECTION V: Public Health and Policy Implications
AMANDA N. BARALDI, INGRID C. WURPTS, DAVID P. MACKINNON, AND GINGER LOCKHART		19. Using Technology to Integrate Behavioral Health into Primary Care	281
14. Economics Analysis of Technology-Based Behavioral Healthcare Systems	200	LOLA AWOYINKA, DAVID H. GUSTAFSON, AND ROBERTA JOHNSON
DANIEL POLSKY		20. The Potential of Technology Solutions for Behavioral Healthcare Disparities	296
SECTION IV: Effective Dissemination and Implementation		MICHAEL CHRISTOPHER GIBBONS
15. Models for Effective Dissemination and Implementation of Technology-Based Therapeutic Approaches to Behavioral Healthcare	209	21. Behavioral Health Information Technology Adoption in the Context of a Changing Healthcare Landscape	307
SARAH E. LORD		WENDY J. NILSEN AND MISHA PAVEL
16. Privacy, Security, and Regulatory Considerations as Related to Behavioral Health Information Technology	224	22. Envisioning the Future: Transformation of Healthcare Systems via Technology	317
PENELOPE P. HUGHES AND MELISSA M. GOLDSTEIN		LISA A. MARSCH
17. Harnessing mHealth in Low-Resource Settings to Overcome Health System Constraints and Achieve Universal Access to Healthcare	239	Index	329
GARRETT MEHL, LAVANYA VASUDEVAN, LIANNE GONSALVES, MATT BERG, TAMSYN SEIMON, MARLEEN TEMMERMAN, AND ALAIN LABRIQUE		About the Editors	349
