

Contents

Acknowledgements ix

List of Illustrations xi

Introduction 1

PART 1

'Released from the French Yoke', 1814–1819

- 1 The Language and the Literature 21
 - The Language Resolution of 1814 21
 - Criticism of the Language Resolution 27
 - The Language Resolution in Literature 30

- 2 The Myth of Waterloo 40

- 3 The Book Publishing Industry 50
 - Press Freedom 50
 - Copyright 59
 - The Reprint 62
 - Attempts to Collaborate 67

- 4 The World of Literary Societies 70
 - In Defence of the Rhetorical Tradition 70
 - Chambers of Rhetoric under the Flag of Holland 72
 - Antwerp: Tot Nut der Jeugd 76

- 5 Aen de Belgen* (1818) 81
 - 'An Undefended Case' 81
 - United in History and Freedom 84
 - Willems' Family 88

- 6 Epilogue 93

PART 2

'The Dawn of Freedom, Civilisation and Prosperity', 1819–1825

- 7 Education and Literature 101
The Situation in Education 101
Main Points of Education Policy 103
Appointments 105
Prejudices, Misfortunes and Abuses 108
Successes and Failures 112
The Significance of Anthologies, Handbooks and Histories of Literature 114
- 8 The World of Literary Societies 121
The Literary Societies 121
The Chambers of Rhetoric 138
Society for the Benefit of All 142
- 9 The Book Publishing Industry 155
Trade in 'Dutch Books' 155
Attempts to Collaborate 157
French Translations 159
The Reprint and the Association 163
- 10 Epilogue 166

PART 3

The Parting of Minds, 1825–1830

- 11 Religion and Literature 173
A Problematic Royal Decree 173
Willems' 'Moderate Catholicism' 175
'A Hundred Eyes and Still Blind': The Journal De Argus 177
- 12 The World of Literary Societies 183
'Institutions of the Devil' 183
New Societies in Lier and Eeklo 187

13 Literature	194
The Belgische Muzen-Almanak (1826–1830)	194
The Almanak voor Blijgeestigen (1826–1831)	203
De Argus (1825–1826)	206
14 The Book Publishing Industry	212
Laurens Janszoon Coster as a Divisive Element	212
Attempts to Collaborate	216
15 Epilogue	224

Epilogue, 1830–1834

16 The Belgian Revolution and Literature	237
The South	237
The North	244
The Belgian Revolution in Literature	246
17 Commentary	250
Notes to Literature References	253
Bibliography	290
Index	310	