

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
INTRODUCTION	13
PART ONE: THE METANARRATIVE OF EMANCIPATION
CHAPTER ONE: THE BUILDING PROCESS: LEGITIMATION AND SELF-
LEGITIMATION	33
The “Heroic” 1920s and the “Mature” 1930s	38
Breaking Away from Aesthetic Criticism	48
Modernist Intellectuals and the Nation-Building Project of the
Vargas Era	55
Educational Reforms: The Project for a National University
System	65
Early Efforts to Canonize Modernist Literature	68
CHAPTER TWO: LITERARY HISTORIOGRAPHY AND THE CANONIZATION
OF MODERNISM IN BRAZIL	80
Literary Historiography’s Method and Functions	83
Brazilian Literary Historians of the 1950s	88
The Standardized Metanarrative of Emancipation: Modernism
as Revolution	96
Modernism and Resistance: A “Tradition of Rupture”	103
Aesthetic Experimentation and the Modernist Discourse of Origins	112
PART TWO: COUNTER-NARRATIVES
CHAPTER THREE: PAULO PRADO AND THE MODERNISTS: PRIVATE
PATRONAGE, IDEOLOGY AND CULTURAL POLITICS	121
The Social and the Economic Basis of the Modernist Movement
in São Paulo	124

The Political and the Economic Elites in the 1920s in São Paulo	127
The Multiple Faces of Paulo Prado	134
Paulo Prado's Modes of Cultural Patronage	140
Paulística : Tales of Bandeirante Supremacy	151
Retrato do Brasil : A Nation Doomed by Racial Miscegenation	161
CHAPTER FOUR: MÁRIO DE ANDRADE AND THE QUEST FOR THE
PURE NATIONAL	173
Mário Andrade's Life and Career	176
A Platform for a Project of National Identity: Signs of
“Modernophobia”	181
Paulicéia desvairada : Harlequin Ousts the Unwanted	186
“Noturno de Belo Horizonte:” Walking the Bandeirante Trail	204
CHAPTER FIVE: ATAVISTIC MODERNITY IN OSWALD DE
ANDRADE'S PAU-BRASIL:	220
Epic Primitivism in Search of the Roots of Modernity	223
The Program of the “Manifesto da poesia Pau-Brasil”	228
The Divided Reception of the Pau-Brasil Project	230
Presence and Immanence in Pau-Brasil	240
Ancestry Revisited: Other Instances of Bandeirismo	254
CONCLUSION	263
WORKS CITED	271
INDEX	281