

Contents

Preface VII

List of Contributors VIII

Introduction 1

Stanisław Grodź and Gina Gertrud Smith

Reinventing Africa? The Negotiation of Ethnic Identities in the New African Religious Diaspora 12

Afe Adogame

Self-Identification and Othering among the Senegalese Fulfulde Speaking People and Others 37

Gina Gertrud Smith

Religious Pluralism and Secularism between Senegal and France: A View from Senegalese Families in France 63

Etienne Smith

Dealing with Diversity and Difference in Public: Traces of Casamançais Cohabitation in Catalonia? 98

Tilmann Heil

Senegalese Networks in Switzerland and USA – How Festive Events Reflect Urban Incorporation Processes 123

Monika Salzbrunn

Religion as a Resource for the Political Involvement of Migrants from Sub-Saharan Africa in Berlin 145

Miriam Schader

Between Ghana and the Netherlands: Ghanaian Muslims Engaging in Interreligious Relationships 168

Martha Frederiks and Stanisław Grodź

Fulani Identity, Citizenship and Islam in an International Context of Migration 191

José C.M. van Santen

Religion, Ethnicity and Transnational Migration between West Africa and Europe: An Epilogue 219

Martha Frederiks

Index 231