

Content

Elisabeth Erdmann and Wolfgang Hasberg Bologna – A European or a Global Task? Introduction.....	5
---	---

1. History Teacher Education in the European Union

Arthur Chapman University History Education and History Teacher Training in the United Kingdom .....	13
Ágnes Fischer-Dárdai and József Kaposi The Correction of the Bologna Reform Process. Changes in the Training of History Teachers in Hungary .....	29
Elisabeth Erdmann and Wolfgang Hasberg Bologna in Germany. History Teacher Education between Historical Culture and History Education .....	45
Viliam Kratochvíl and Barnabás Vajda History Didactics in the Slovak Republic .....	63
Maria Sánchez Agustí The Teaching of History in Spain. Imbalances between History and History Didactics in the Training of History Teachers .....	75
Danijela Trškan Development of History Teacher Education in Slovenia .....	91
Marie-Christine Baquès and Brigitte Morand In France: Tense Times follow the Training Reform Upheaval .....	109

2. History Teacher Education in Europe

Ismail H. Demircioglu History Teacher Education and History Education in Turkey .....	125
Alexander S. Khodnev History Teacher Education in Russia .....	143
Vera Sperisen and Béatrice Ziegler The Great Upheaval. Reform of History Teacher Education in Switzerland .....	159

3. History Teacher Education in a Global Perspective

Keith C. Barton

History Education and Teacher Preparation in the United States ..... 175

Penney Clark, Stéphane Lévesque and Ruth Sandwell

Dialogue Across Chasms: History and History Education in Canada ..... 191

Tim Allender

History Lessons from the Antipodes: Teaching History Didactics
in Australia ..... 213

Elize S. van Eeden

Studying History in South-Africa: Reflections of yesterday to face, map and bridge diversity today and tomorrow ..... 229

Takahiro Kondo

Issues of History Education in Japan as seen in Teacher Education.
Lost in Polarization of Historical Culture ..... 265

4. Conclusion

Elisabeth Erdmann and Wolfgang Hasberg

Global Interrelations? Necessity and Fertility of Standardizing
History Education ..... 281

5. Authors ..... 289