

List of Contents

A/ About this guide:
which purpose? for whom? and how to use it?	12
B/ Conceptual foundations
B.1/ Contract farming (CF): the basics at a glance	14
1.1 Definition, contract farming models and contract types	16
1.2 Drivers and trends	21
1.3 Incentives (benefits) and disincentives (disadvantages) for contract farming	22
1.4 Conditions for success and failure	25
1.5 Crop suitability for contract farming	31
B.2/ Facilitation of contract farming: moderation of processes, technical and financial assistance	36
2.1 Justification and objectives	38
2.2 Facilitation principles, facilitation tasks and facilitator profiles	38
2.3 CF facilitation in least developed countries or fragile environments	41
C/ The contract farming facilitation guide
C.1/ GIZ contract farming concept: the central role of CF business model selection	42
C.2/ Process-structure: three phases for developing contract farming schemes	46
C.3/ Phase 1: Initiate & plan	50
Step 1/ Decision to develop a contract farming scheme – identify opportunities and risks, costs and benefits	54
Activity 1.1/ Clarify the company's interest in and capacities for initiating a CF business model	55
Activity 1.2/ Realise a rapid screening of potential production areas and farming systems	56
Activity 1.3/ Map the Value Chain (VC operators, VC economics, VC upgrading needs)	57
Step 2/ Development of a CF capacity development plan – identify non-financial and financial service needs	59
Activity 2.1/ (Pre)Select production area(s) and farmers/ farmer groups for the start-up phase	62
Activity 2.2/ Assess farmers'/ groups' and buyer's capacity development and service needs	64
Activity 2.3/ Draft a CF service plan (embedded and external services)	66
Step 3/ Development of a CF business plan – outline solutions for the start-up and operation of the scheme	67
Activity 3.1/ Screen alternative CF arrangements and select an appropriate CF business model	69
Activity 3.2/ Outline the prospective structure and management plan of the CF business model	71
Activity 3.3/ Outline contract details (1 st draft only reflecting the buyer's perspective)	73
Activity 3.4/ Draft a CF business plan (incl. prospective return on investment, risk assessment, etc.)	80

C.4/ Phase 2: Implement & learn	82
Step 4/ Negotiations and farmers' acceptance of CF contract – initiate working relations and trust building	85
Activity 4.1/ Prepare the CF agreement and enable farmers to take informed business decisions	87
Activity 4.2/ Offer the CF contract and explain the specifications to farmers	89
Activity 4.3/ Accept the CF contract following fair and transparent negotiations	91
Step 5/ Start up CF field operations – develop an efficient system for supplier network management	92
Activity 5.1/ Finalise the CF business and management plans and frame a seasonal CF budget	94
Activity 5.2/ Set up CF infrastructure and management for field operations	96
Activity 5.3/ Develop CF capacities of farmers, farmer groups, field and management staff	98
Step 6/ Monitoring, feedback, learning – generate business information for strategic decisions	100
Activity 6.1/ Set up a CF business information system for farmer-firm interface management	101
Activity 6.2/ Establish routines for feedback to farmers, field staff and management	102
C.5/ Phase 3: Sustain & grow	104
Step 7/ Continuous improvement for sustainability– further strengthen the CF for reaching break-even	108
Step 8/ Step 8: Generic growth through up-scaling– innovate the CF business model to include more farmers	110
Bibliography	112