

Contents

Prologue: What is the West About?	I
-----------------------------------	---

The World of Antiquity

1 The Ancient Family	7
2 The Ancient City	19
3 The Ancient Cosmos	33

A Moral Revolution

4 The World Turned Upside Down: Paul	51
5 The Truth Within: Moral Equality	67
6 Heroism Redefined	79
7 A New Form of Association: Monasticism	88
8 The Weakness of the Will: Augustine	100

Towards the Idea of Fundamental Law

9 Shaping New Attitudes and Habits	113
10 Distinguishing Spiritual from Temporal Power	126
11 Barbarian Codes, Roman Law and Christian Intuitions	141
12 The Carolingian Compromise	151

Europe Acquires its Identity

13 Why Feudalism did not Recreate Ancient Slavery	165
14 Fostering the 'Peace of God'	178
15 The Papal Revolution: A Constitution for Europe?	192
16 Natural Law and Natural Rights	208

CONTENTS

A New Model of Government

17	Centralization and the New Sense of Justice	225
18	The Democratizing of Reason	237
19	Steps towards the Creation of Nation-States	252
20	Urban Insurrections	265

The Birth Pangs of Modern Liberty

21	Popular Aspirations and the Friars	281
22	The Defence of Egalitarian Moral Intuitions	293
23	God's Freedom and Human Freedom Joined: Ockham	306
24	Struggling for Representative Government in the Church	321
25	Dispensing with the Renaissance	333
	Epilogue: Christianity and Secularism	349
	Select Bibliography and Endnotes	365
	Index	387