

Contents

Introduction	1
1: American Society, 1815–1845: The Rural Democracy	6
2: Religious Ideas About Social Welfare, 1815–1845	12
3: Secular Ideas About Social Welfare, 1815–1845	23
4: The Poor Law, 1815–1845	35
5: The Promise of the Institution, 1815–1845	48
6: Urban Charities, 1845–1900	71
7: Philanthropy and Science, 1850–1900: State Institutions	90
8: Charity Organization and Social Settlements, 1877–1920	111
9: The Progressive Years, 1900–1919	136
10: The 1920s: Constructive Ideas	163
11: Social Insurance and Pensions Before 1930	191
12: Relief and Social Security, 1930–1946	217
13: Income Maintenance, 1935–1960	245

viii Contents

14: Direct Services, 1935–1961: Toward Community Care	270
15: National Action and Community Organization, 1961–1966	297
16: Disenchantment, 1967–1972	316
17: Professional Identity in Social Work: Historical Reflections	340
References and Guide to the Literature	359
Bibliography	389
Index	417