

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Contributors	xi
General Editor's Preface	xiii
Introduction: The American Novel to 1870 J. Gerald Kennedy and Leland S. Person	1
Part I: The Beginnings of the Novel in the United States
1. Before the American Novel Betsy Erkkila	21
2. The Sentimental Novel and the Seductions of Postcolonial Imitation Karen A. Weyler	41
3. Complementary Strangers: Charles Brockden Brown, Susanna Rowson, and the Early American Sentimental Gothic Marion Rust	56
4. Trends and Patterns in the US Novel, 1800–1820 Ed White	73
5. Unsettling Novels of the Early Republic Leonard Tennenhouse	89
Part II: The Novel and American Nation Building
6. Walter Scott and the American Historical Novel Fiona Robertson	107
7. Revolutionary Novels and the Problem of Literary Nationalism Joseph J. Letter	124
8. Frontier Novels, Border Wars, and Indian Removal Dana D. Nelson	142

9. America's Europe: Irving, Poe, and the Foreign Subject J. Gerald Kennedy	159
 Part III: The American Publishing World and the Novel
10. Publishers, Booksellers, and the Literary Market Michael Winship	179
11. The Perils of Authorship: Literary Property and Nineteenth-Century American Fiction Lara Langer Cohen and Meredith L. McGill	195
12. Periodicals and the Novel Patricia Okker	213
13. Cheap Sensation: Pamphlet Potboilers and Beadle's Dime Novels Shelley Streeby	229
 Part IV: Leading Novelists of Antebellum America
14. James Fenimore Cooper: Beyond Leather-Stocking Wayne Franklin	247
15. Catharine Maria Sedgwick: Domestic and National Narratives James L. Machor	262
16. Hawthorne and the Historical Romance Larry J. Reynolds	278
17. Herman Melville Jonathan Arac	294
18. Harriet Beecher Stowe and the Antislavery Cause John Ernest	310
 Part V: Major Novels
19. The Last of the Mohicans : Race to Citizenship Leland S. Person	329
20. The Scarlet Letter Monika Elbert	343
21. Moby-Dick and Globalization John Carlos Rowe	355
22. Harriet Beecher Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin David S. Reynolds	368

Part VI: Cultural Influences on the American Novel, 1820–1870

23. Transatlantic Currents and Postcolonial Anxieties 385
Paul Giles
24. The Transamerican Novel 402
Anna Brickhouse
25. Slavery, Abolitionism, and the African American Novel 419
Ivy G. Wilson
26. Ethnic Novels and the Construction of the Multicultural
Nation to 1870 435
John Lowe
27. Women's Novels and the Gendering of Genius 449
Renée Bergland
28. Male Hybrids in Classic American Fiction 466
David Leverenz
29. Studying Nature in the Antebellum Novel 483
Timothy Sweet
30. Novels of Faith and Doubt in a Changing Culture 500
Caroline Levander

Part VII: Fictional Subgenres

31. Temperance Novels and Moral Reform 517
Debra J. Rosenthal
32. Novels of Travel and Exploration 532
Gretchen Murphy
33. The City Mystery Novel 548
Scott Peeples
34. Surviving National Disunion: Civil War Novels of the 1860s 564
Paul Christian Jones

- Composite Bibliography 579
- Index of American Novelists to 1870 617
- General Index 626