

Contents

Acknowledgments + ix

Introduction

Nation and Discourse + 1

I. Politics and Letters

Ahad Ha-Am's Rhetoric of the Nation + 35

2. Language and Pedagogy

Moshe Smilansky's "Hawaja Nazar" + 75

3. Literary Criticism as Nationalist Cartography

*Joseph Hayyim Brenner and "The Land of Israel
Genre and Its Accoutrements"* + 108

4. The Rhetoric of Historical Anxiety

David Ben-Gurion and Meir Yaari + 153

5. History and Myth

Moshe Shamir's He Walked through the Fields + 195

6. History and Mourning

The Reception of Moshe Shamir's He Walked through the Fields + 229

7. National Aesthetics in Crisis

Amos Oz's Political Writings + 266

8. The Tussle with the Zionist Dream

Yaakov Shabtai's Past Continuous + 298

9. A Sentimental Journey

Dan Miron's Moral Landscape + 336

Conclusion

Rethinking the Hebrew Discourse of the Nation + 372

References + 385

Index + 445