

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction	i
1. Playing House on the Frontier: Caroline Kirkland and Louise Clappe	14
2. “Your Ex-Washlady”: Elinore Pruitt Stewart, the Woman Homesteader of Wyoming	36
3. “Straight-Made in Nothing”: Mary MacLane and Domestic Ritual	60
4. Girls of the Limberlost: Gene Stratton-Porter and Opal Whiteley	81
5. “Wind and Sun Are Good Housekeepers”: The Domestic Narratives of Mary Austin and Zitkala-Sa	115
6. Camps, Caves, and Attics: Playing House in Willa Cather’s Western Novels	136
7. My Great, Wide, Beautiful World : Home Writing as Travel Writing	158
8. Eating In, Eating Out, and Eating al Otro Lado : M. F. K. Fisher’s The Gastronomical Me	176
9. Searching for Home: Jean Stafford’s West	193
10. The Once and Future Home: Housekeeping and Anywhere but Here	208
Conclusion: “I Am Going to ‘Play Like’ You Have Come”	220
Notes	225
Works Cited	235
Index	247