

Table of contents

| | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Acknowledgements | IX |
| CHAPTER 1 | |
| Applying constructional concepts to Romance languages Hans C. Boas and Francisco González-García | 1 |
| CHAPTER 2 | |
| The role of constructional meanings in novel verb-noun compounds in Spanish Jiyoung Yoon | 37 |
| CHAPTER 3 | |
| From lexicalization to constructional generalizations: On complex prepositions in French Peter Lauwers | 79 |
| CHAPTER 4 | |
| A constructional corpus-based approach to 'weak' verbs in French Dominique Willems and Claire Blanche-Benveniste | 113 |
| CHAPTER 5 | |
| The Narrative Infinitive Construction in French and Latin Irina Nikolaeva | 139 |
| CHAPTER 6 | |
| Bringing together fragments and constructions: Evidence from complementation in English and Spanish Francisco González-García | 181 |

CHAPTER 7

A Romance perspective on gapping constructions 227

Anne Abeillé, Gabriela Bîlbîie, and François Mouret

CHAPTER 8

Variable type framing in Spanish constructions of directed motion 269

Johan Pedersen

Author index 305

Construction index 309

Language index 311

Subject index 313