

Contents

List of Figures	vii
Acknowledgments	viii
List of Abbreviations	x
Introduction	1
A Memorial Sermon	1
Hazlitt the Dissenter	3
1 William Hazlitt (1737–1820) and the Unitarian Controversy	9
‘One of the fathers of the modern Unitarian church’	9
‘A mark of separation’	14
The Rise of English Unitarianism	19
Polemical Divinity	22
‘Beware the black rebel’	30
Transatlantic Unitarianism	33
Educating William	39
2 ‘A slaughter-house of Christianity’: New College, Hackney (1786–96)	49
North’s Coffee House, Cheapside	49
A Dissenting Education	55
‘My first entrance into life’: Hazlitt’s Hackney	58
The New College Curriculum	63
‘The principles of instability and decay’	68
‘The misfortune and dishonour of the Dissenters’	73
‘A hot-bed of sedition’	80
‘A slaughter-house of Christianity’	85
3 A ‘new system of metaphysics’	91
Hazlitt the Philosopher	91
‘A metaphysical discovery’	93
The Genesis of the Essay	96
An Essay on the Principles of Human Action (1805)	101
Price, Reid, Crabb Robinson, and Kant	108

'The mind alone is formative'	112
A History of English Philosophy	119
4 Retrospective Radicalism:
Pitt, Patriotism, and Population	124
The Politics of Dissent	124
Pitt's Legacy: A 'death-like apathy in the state'	128
'To revive what was forgotten': The Eloquence of the British Senate	137
The Whig Apostasy: Malthus, Whitbread, and Poor Law Reform	148
Saint Holcroft	161
Conclusion: 'A sublime humanity'	164
Notes	168
Bibliography	199
Index	214