

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
Foreword by Robin Means Coleman	xi
Acknowledgements	xvii
Introduction: “It’s got to feel real but not be real” (Ice-T) Josephine Metcalf and Will Turner	1
Part 1 Hip-Hop Contexts
1 Ice/Age: Experience, Achievement, and Transformations of an OG Murray Forman	19
2 Ice-T at the Movies: The Hip-Hop Film Cycle and the On-Screen Gangsta in Flux Keith Corson	43
3 Voices of the Gods: Definition, Diegesis, and Discourse in Ice-T’s The Art of Rap James Braxton Peterson	65
Part 2 Genre Hustling
4 Crossing Police Lines: Body Count and the Politics of Intercultural Miscommunication Will Turner	87
5 Member of an Elite Squad: Ice-T and the Imagining of “Fin” Tutuola Mark D. Cunningham	115
6 Ice Loves Coco : Reality TV, Hip-Hop, and the Articulation of Neo-Liberal Family Values Barry Shanahan	137

7	Writing “on the Rilla” with Ice-T: From Autobiography to Avatar in Kings of Vice Jonathan Munby	157
Part 3 Activist, Philanthropist, Entrepreneur
8	Gaming the System: Ice-T as Neoliberal Hustler and Entrepreneurial Philanthropist Greg Dimitriadis and Justin De Senso	179
9	The Peacemaking Producer of LA: Negotiating and Representing Gangs on Reality TV Josephine Metcalf	201
10	Ice-T’s Sense of Redemption and the Gangbanger Autobiography H. David Brumble	231
11	Getting “A Message Through to the Red, White, and Blue”: Ice-T in the Age of Obama Halifu Osumare	255
Part 4 Interview
12	Living by Your Word: An Interview with Ice-T	279
	Afterword: Ice-T’s “-ish” and The Power of Street Knowledge Travis L. Gosa	307
	Ice-ography	321
	Index	329