

Contents

Foreword	v
Preface to the second edition	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	1
Part 1: Framework for listening	4
Part 2: The Mosaic approach	13
Stage 1: Children and adults gathering documentation	15
Pieces of the mosaic	15
Observation	15
Child conferencing	18
Cameras	23
Tours	28
Mapping	30
Role play	32
Parents' perspectives	34
Practitioners' perspectives	35
Researcher's perspectives	37
Stage 2: Piecing together information for dialogue, reflection and interpretation	38
Bringing the mosaic together	38
Pre-verbal children	38
Case Study 1: Toni (age 22 months)	38
Children with speech	42
Case Study 2: Gary (age 3)	42
Case Study 3: Gaby (age 3)	45
Reflection into practice	48
Recognising the unexpected	49
Mosaic approach with refugee children	51
Summary	55

Part 3: Possibilities and challenges of listening	56
Possibilities of listening	57
Challenges of listening	64
Conditions for listening	66
Summary	71
Epilogue	72
Appendix: Further reading about the Mosaic approach	74
References	77
Index	82