Contents

Foreword	vii
Fan-Sen Wang
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction Sheldon Pollock	I
From Book to Edition: Philology in Ancient Greece Franco Montanari	25
2. The Bride of Mercury: Confessions of a 'Pataphilologist James E. G. Zetzel	45
3. Striving for Meaning: A Short History of Rabbinic Omnisignificance Yaakov Elman	63
4. Early Arabic Philologists: Poetry's Friends or Foes? Beatrice Gruendler	92
5. What Was Philology in Sanskrit? Sheldon Pollock	114
6. Reconciling the Classics: Two Case Studies in Song-Yuan Exegetical Approaches Michael Lackner	137

7. Humanist Philologies: Texts, Antiquities, and Their Scholarly Transformations in the Early Modern West Anthony Grafton	154
8. Mughal Philology and Rūmī's Mathnavī Muzaffar Alam	178
9. The Rise of "Deep Reading" in Early Modern Ottoman Scholarly Culture Khaled El-Rouayheb	201
10. Early Modern or Late Imperial? The Crisis of Classical Philology in Eighteenth-Century China Benjamin A. Elman	225
11. The Politics of Philology in Japan: Ancient Texts, Language, and Japanese Identity Susan L. Burns	245
12. "Enthusiasm Dwells Only in Specialization": Classical Philology and Disciplinarity in Nineteenth-Century Germany Constanze Güthenke	264
13. The Intelligence of Philological Practice: On the Interpretation of Rilke's Sonnet "O komm und geh" Christoph König	285
14. Philology or Linguistics? Transcontinental Responses Ku-ming Kevin Chang	311
Notes Bibliography List of Contributors	333 385 437
Index	439