

Contents

List of illustrations	vi
Series editors' foreword	viii
Acknowledgements	x
Maps	xi
Introduction	xiv
1 Conceptualizing Cold War remembrance	1
2 Nuclear world	23
3 Cities and sites	70
4 Defining our times	163
5 Endings?	209
Bibliography	227
Index	251

Illustrations

0.1	Section of Gdansk shipyard wall erected outside the Reichstag, Berlin	xvi
2.1	Memorial Monument for Hiroshima, City of Peace	28
2.2	Genbaku Dome, Hiroshima	29
2.3	Entrance to Bunker-42, Moscow	55
2.4	Entrance to Ejby Bunker, Copenhagen	57
3.1	Museum of Genocide Victims, Vilnius	73
3.2	Plaque on external wall of the Museum of Genocide Victims, Vilnius	74
3.3	Entrance to Tuskulėnai Chapel and Columbarium, Vilnius	75
3.4	Anti-Soviet memorial outside the Lithuanian parliament, Vilnius	77
3.5	Soviet-era statues on the Green Bridge, Vilnius	77
3.6	The Schirdingovský Palace with pedestrian arcade, Prague	83
3.7	The 'Velvet Revolution Memorial' surrounded by candles, Prague	83
3.8	Close-up of 'Velvet Revolution Memorial' adorned with decorations, Prague	84
3.9	Signpost outside the Museum of Communism, above McDonald's, Prague	87
3.10	Mock communist-era workshop in the Museum of Communism, Prague	88
3.11	Technological advances during the Cold War, at the Museum of Communism, Prague	89
3.12	Chronic food shortages under communism, at the Museum of Communism, Prague	89
3.13	Mock Berlin Wall at the Museum of Communism, Prague	90
3.14	Memorial to 1956, in front of the Hungarian parliament, Budapest	94
3.15	Hungarian flag with symbolic hole cut out of its centre, Budapest	96
3.16	Allegoric grave in front of Hungarian parliament, Budapest	97
3.17	Plugged bullet holes from 1956 uprising, Budapest	98
3.18	The House of Terror, Budapest	100
3.19	Portraits of victims of communism on façade of the House of Terror, Budapest	102

3.20 Unfinished full-scale model of the 'Tribune and Stalin's Boots', Budapest	104
3.21 Front entrance to Memento Park, Budapest	106
3.22 Statue of 'Liberating Soviet Soldier', Memento Park, Budapest	107
3.23 Memorial dedicated to Béla Kun, Memento Park, Budapest	108
3.24 Cold War-era memorialization of Hungarians who fought in Spanish Civil War, Memento Park, Budapest	110
3.25 Republic of Councils Monument, Memento Park, Budapest	111
3.26 Stalin's 'gift': the Palace of Culture and Science, Warsaw	115
3.27 Reagan monument a week after its unveiling, Warsaw	118
3.28 Memorial to Truong Son heroic officers and soldiers, Hanoi	121
3.29 Front entrance to the 'Hanoi Hilton', Hanoi	122
3.30 Poster erected at Huu Tiep Lake to mark the 40th anniversary of the 'Dien Bien Phu in the Air', Hanoi	124
3.31 Remnants of B-52 bomber shot down in December 1972, Huu Tiep Lake, Hanoi	125
3.32 Victims of Communism Memorial, with United States Capitol in background, Washington	128
3.33 The Covert Café, Vint Hill	138
3.34 The Cold War Museum, Vint Hill	139
3.35 Segment of the Berlin Wall outside the Wende Museum, Culver City	144
3.36 István Kiss' model for his Republic of Councils Monument, on display in the Wende Museum, Culver City	146
3.37 Shelves of documents underneath authentic DDR sign, Wende Museum, Culver City	147
3.38 Shelves of film waiting to be catalogued, Wende Museum, Culver City	148
3.39 Busts in storage, Wende Museum, Culver City	149
3.40 Surveillance equipment, Wende Museum, Culver City	150
3.41 Display room, Wende Museum, Culver City	150
3.42 The longest stretch of the Berlin Wall outside Germany, on display in California	151
4.1 National Cold War Exhibition Building, RAF Museum, Cosford	172
4.2 Deportation locomotive on display outside Grútas Park, Lithuania	177
4.3 Evoking the Gulag. Front entrance to Grútas Park, Lithuania	178
4.4 Air raid shelter sign at international airport, Taipei	200
4.5 Memorial to victims in front of the 228 Memorial Museum, Taipei	200
5.1 Wall murals at the East Side Gallery, Berlin	212
5.2 Trabi World, Berlin	214
5.3 Berlin Airlift Memorial at the Platz der Luftbrücke , Berlin	215
5.4 Russian Ministry of Foreign Affairs building, Moscow	217
5.5 Gulag Memorial to victims of Stalin, Sculpture Park near Tretiakov Gallery, Moscow	222