

Contents

| | | |
|----------|--|-----------|
| 1 | Introduction | 7 |
| 1.1 | Major thematic concerns | 9 |
| 1.2 | The historical context | 14 |
| 1.3 | Methodology | 16 |
| 1.4 | Literature review | 19 |
| 2 | Helga Schubert | 23 |
| 2.1 | Helga Schubert as a writer of short prose: style, content and development | 23 |
| 2.2 | A definition of photorealism and an illustration of the synchronic snapshot's function as a social document | 27 |
| 2.2.1 | Textual illustrations of photorealism | 32 |
| 2.3 | Photorealism and the impossibility of reform | 40 |
| 2.3.1 | Photorealism as escape from life under dictatorship | 40 |
| 2.3.2 | Schubert's synchronic snapshot as an indicator of perceived social stagnation in GDR society | 41 |
| 2.4 | Recurring themes | 45 |
| 2.4.1 | "Verlust an Konfliktfähigkeit" | 45 |
| 2.4.2 | Stunted emotional maturity | 53 |
| 2.4.3 | The limits of endurance: departure or suicide? | 57 |
| 2.5 | The Nazi dictatorship | 60 |
| 2.5.1 | Guilt and forgiveness: overcoming the past | 60 |
| 2.5.2 | Judasfrauen: the open wound | 65 |
| 2.6 | Conclusion | 73 |
| 3 | Helga Königsdorf | 74 |
| 3.1 | Death and its dialectical relationship to life | 81 |
| 3.1.2 | " Liriodendron tulipifera ": Life, death and the search for identity | 89 |
| 3.2 | 'Reclaiming oneself' - the search for individuality | 94 |
| 3.3 | Breaking down the "innere Mauer" and the consequences of failure | 111 |
| 3.4 | Individuals as competitors | 122 |

| | | |
|-----------|---|------------|
| 4 | Monika Maron | 130 |
| 4.1 | Monika Maron as a writer of fantasy | 130 |
| 4.2 | Fantasy in literature - a response to Realism/s | 131 |
| 4.3 | “Das Mißverständnis” and “Annaeva” | 134 |
| 4.4 | “Herr Aurich” | 146 |
| 4.5 | “Audienz” | 154 |
| 4.6 | “Ada und Evald” | 169 |
| 4.7 | The fragility of reality | 166 |
| 5. | Conclusion | 167 |
| | Works Consulted | 171 |
| | Bibliography of Published Works | 176 |
| | Acknowledgements | 179 |