

CONTENTS

	Page
List of Illustrations	iii
List of Tables	x
Editors' Introduction	xi
Contributors	xii
 Approaches
1. The future of maritime research: questions of culture and problems of process	1
A.H.J. Prins
2. Some structural models for sewn boats	9
J.F. Coates
 Mediterranean Region
3. Retrospective on the Royal ship of Cheops	19
Paul Lipke
4. Mediterranean sewn boats in Antiquity	35
Patrice Pomey
5. Early observations on the construction of the pre-Classical wreck at Campese Bay, Island of Giglio	49
Mensun Bound
6. Liburnian boats - their form and construction	67
Z. Brusić and M. Domjan
7. Sewn boats in Italy	87
Marco Bonino
 Northern Europe
8. North Ferriby boats - a revised basis for reconstruction	105
E.V. Wright
9. Dendrochronology of the N. Ferriby boats	145
Jennifer Hillam
10. Sewn boats in Switzerland - a clue	163
Béat Arnold
11. Brigg "raft" - reconstruction problems	165
Seán McGrail
12. Sewn Boats in Finland	195
Henry Forssell
13. Sewn boats of Sweden	211
Christer Westerdahl
14. The lodja and other vessels	233
Carl-Olof Cederlund
15. Sewn craft of the 19th century in the European part of Russia	253
Jerzy Litwin
16. Driftwood and wreckage in the Arctic icedrift on the shores of Svalbard	269
A. Högblom

	Page
Indian Ocean, Asia and Oceania
17. Construction of the Omani Boom Sohar	Tim Severin 279
18. Designed flexibility in a sewn boat of the western Indian Ocean	Robert M. Adams 289
19. Some aspects of the Masula surf boat	Eric Kentley 303
20. Sewn-plank craft of S.E. Asia	Pierre-Yves Manguin 319
21. Whaling vessels of Indonesia	R.H. Barnes 345
22. Flying proas of Kiribati	David Goddard 367
 Selected Bibliography	 Eric Kentley 387
Conference Participants	397