

CONTENTS

FOREWORD BY IVÁN FÓNAGY	xi
PREFACE	xv
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	xviii
NOTATION	xix
I. Determining the Relevant Features of a Gestural Expression: An Intracultural Experimental Study	1
Goal and method	1
Test	8
Results	10
Positive or negative role of the complementary facial signifier— Errors due to the principal signifier—Errors due to the signified— Semantic data deduced from mismatches
II. The Iconic and Cultural Nature of Gesture: An Intercultural Experimental Study	26
Goal	26
Comparison of results	26
Identification of certain gestures—Mismatches—Positive role of facial expression—Cultural nature of facial expression—Cultural and iconic nature of gesture
III. Physical Components of the Gestural Sign	41
Relevant physical features	42
A dictionary of gestures arranged according to relevant physical features	48
Symbolic corollaries to relevant physical features	57
IV. Semantic Fields of the Gestural Sign	84
Time	85
Localization—Duration
Aggressiveness	93
Cluster of signifieds—Network of expressions
Judgment	97
Certainty-Doubt-Disbelief—Positive-mediocre-negative qualities— Agreement-Disagreement

V. Mimic Representation	104
Conventionality—Encoding—Etymology-revealing gestures— Synthesis—Selection—Transfer—Gestural representation of acting and being acted on—Dynamic or static characterization of the signified—'Static' or 'dynamic' gesture? Before or after action?— Space-time interaction
VI. The Relationship between Signifier and Signified: Motivation	116
Motivation and conventionality—Motivation and isomorphism— Motivation and variants—Motivation and polysemy—Double motivation of a sign—Motivation and gestural redundance— Motivation and gestural economy—Relationships between motivations
VII. An Application: The Motivation of Refusal	154
Active refusal—Passive refusal—Refusal through different signifieds
VIII. Gesture and Speech	162
Phono-gestural parallelism—Gesture in discourse—Gesture and the analysis of discourse—Gesture and language
Conclusion	205
APPENDIXES	211
REFERENCES	228
INDEX	231