

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FOREWORD	13
-----------------------	----

INTRODUCTION	15
---------------------------	----

1. The Relevance of the Theme	15
2. Status Quaestionis	18
3. Contribution of the Research	20
4. Methodology	21
4.1 Cohesion	22
4.2 Coherence	23
4.3 Pragmatic Elements	23
5. Outline of the Study	26

PART I

THE CARE OF THE SHEPHERD AND THE INCOMPREHENSION OF THE DISCIPLES

Chapter I: The Care for the Shepherdless: Mark 6,30–44	33
---	----

1. Presupposition of the Reader: 1,1–6,29	33
1.1 The Prologue: «Way» in the Wilderness (1,1–13)	33
1.2 Way in Galilee: Followed and Opposed (1,14–3,6)	35
1.3 Way in Galilee: Those Who are Inside and Outside (3,7–6,6a)	36
1.4 Way in Galilee: The Mission of the Insiders (6,6b–6,29)	39
Conclusion	41
2. Jesus, the Disciples and the Shepherdless Crowd: 6,30–44	41
2.1 Cohesion of 6,30–44	43
2.1.1 First Scene (6,30–33)	44
2.1.2 Second Scene (6,34–44)	46
2.2 Coherence of 6,30–44	49
2.2.1 Stage Setting (6,30–33)	49
a. The Gathering Together of the Disciples (v. 30)	49
b. Jesus' Invitation to Rest and Eat in the «Wilderness» (vv. 31–32)	51
c. The Gathering Together of Many (v. 33)	54

2.2.2 Jesus and his Disciples with the Crowd (6,34–44)	55
a. Jesus Saw the Sheep Without a Shepherd (v. 34)	55
b. The Disciples Raise the Issue of Food (vv. 35–36)	65
c. The Disciples are Asked to Solve the Issue themselves (vv. 37–38)	66
d. Jesus Provides for the Shepherdless Crowd (vv. 39–41)	67
e. The Satisfied Sheep (v. 42)	71
f. The Abundance (vv. 43–44)	72
2.3 Pragmatic Elements of 6,30–44	74
2.3.1 Communicative Context	74
a. Reverberating the Shepherding Activity of YHWH	74
b. The Shepherdless Crowd as Israel	75
2.3.2 Communicative Strategy	77
a. An Invitation to Remember and Experience the Wilderness	77
b. The Crowd as a Model for the Reader	77
c. An Invitation to Partake in the Shepherding Activity	78
d. The Shepherd who Gathers and Feeds the Disbanded	79
3. Conclusions	81

Chapter II: The Care for the Gentiles and the Uncomprehending Disciples: Mark 6,45–8,21

1. The Manifestation of Jesus: 6,45–52	85
1.1 Cohesion of 6,45–52	86
1.1.1 First Scene (6,45–46)	86
1.1.2 Second Scene (6,47–52)	87
1.2 Coherence of 6,45–52	89
1.2.1 Stage Setting (6,45–46)	89
1.2.2 Manifestation and Incomprehension (6,47–52)	91
a. Initial Situation (v. 47)	91
b. The Disciples in Danger (v. 48ab)	91
c. The Manifestation (vv. 48c–51a)	92
d. The Wind Ceased (v. 51b)	95
e. The Incomprehension of the Disciples (vv. 51c–52)	95
1.3 Pragmatic Elements of 6,45–52	98
1.3.1 Communicative Context	98
a. Further Revelation of the Identity of Jesus	98
b. The Disciples Fail to Understand	99
1.3.2 Communicative Strategy	99
a. An Invitation to Comprehend Jesus' Identity	99
b. See, Hear, Think and Understand	100

2. Jesus and the Gentile Woman: 7,24–30	101
2.1 Cohesion of 7,24–30	102
2.1.1 Verses 24–26a	102
2.1.2 Verses 26b–28	103
2.1.3 Verse 29	103
2.1.4 Verse 30	104
2.2 Coherence of 7,24–30	104
2.2.1 The Gentile Woman Approaches Jesus (7,24–26a)	104
2.2.2 The Priority of the Children (7,26b–28)	107
2.2.3 The Children’s Food offered (7,29)	110
2.2.4 The Gentile «Child» (7,30)	110
2.3 Pragmatic Elements of 7,24–30	110
2.3.1 Communicative Context	110
a. The Children’s «Table», Opened Up for the Gentiles	110
b. The Table Fellowship Continued and Extended	111
2.3.2 Communicative Strategy	112
a. The Shepherd’s Mission Manifesto	112
b. Gentile Response to the Manifesto	113
3. Jesus’ Feeding of the Gentiles, the Controversy with the Pharisees and the Incomprehension of the Disciples: 8,1–21	114
3.1 Cohesion of 8,1–21	115
3.1.1 First Scene (8,1–9)	115
3.1.2 Second Scene (8,10–13)	117
3.1.3 Third Scene (8,14–21)	119
3.2 Coherence of 8,1–21	121
3.2.1 The Shepherd of the Gentiles (8,1–9)	121
a. Initial Situation (v. 1a)	121
b. The Compassionate Jesus and the Disbelieving Disciples (vv. 1b–5)	122
c. Jesus in Action with his Disciples (vv. 6–7)	124
d. The Satisfied Sheep (v. 8ab)	125
e. The Abundance (vv. 8c–9)	126
3.2.2 Jesus and the Pharisees (8,10–13)	127
a. In Dalmanutha (v. 10)	127
b. The Demand for a Sign and Denial (vv. 11–12)	128
c. The Hinge Verse (v. 13)	130
3.2.3 The Incomprehension of the Disciples (8,14–21)	130
a. The Background (v. 14)	130
b. Jesus Warns his Disciples (vv. 15–16)	131
c. Jesus Corrects his Disciples (vv. 17–18)	132
d. The Feedings Revisited (vv. 19–20)	133
e. The Concluding Admonition (v. 21)	134

3.3 Pragmatic Elements of 8,1–21	135
3.3.1 Communicative Context	135
a. The Allusions behind the Compassionate Jesus and the Faithful Crowd	135
b. The Bad Shepherds of Israel	136
c. The Disciples like «Outsiders»	137
3.3.2 Communicative Strategy	137
a. Be with the Shepherd and Join the Banquet	137
b. The Shepherd cares for the Gentile Sheep as well	138
c. Beware of the Bad Shepherds	138
d. See, Hear and Understand	139
4. Conclusions	143

PART II

THE SCANDAL AND THE NEW COMMUNION

Chapter III: The Smitten Shepherd and the Dispersion of the Sheep: Mark 14,26–31

1. Presupposition of the Reader: 8,27–14,25	147
1.1 The «Way» to Jerusalem: Messiah and His Way (8,27–10,52)	148
1.2 Way in Jerusalem: In the Temple (11,1–13,37)	150
1.3 The Plot to Kill, Anointing and the Table Fellowship (14,1–25)	151
Conclusion	154
2. The Prophecies of Scandal, Dispersion and Denial: 14,26–31	155
2.1 Cohesion of 14,26–31	155
2.2 Coherence of 14,26–31	157
2.2.1 The Shepherd's Prediction of Denial, Dispersal and Re-gathering (14,26–31)	157
a. Introduction (v. 26)	157
b. First Prediction and its Response (vv. 27–29)	159
c. Second Prediction and its Response (vv. 30–31)	169
2.3 Pragmatic Elements of 14,17–31	170
2.3.1 Communicative Context	170
a. Will be Stricken but also Will be Resurrected and Lead Forth	170
2.3.2 Communicative Strategy	171
a. The Scandal, Cause to Scatter	171
b. Stricken by God or by the Bad Shepherds?	171
c. Promise of the Shepherd v/s Promise of the Sheep	172
d. The Paradox of Denial	173
3. Conclusions	174

Chapter IV: The New Beginning: Mark 16,1–8	177
1. Presupposition of the Reader: 14,32–15,47	177
1.1 The Betrayal and Dispersal (14,32–52)	177
1.2 The Trial, Denial, Death and Burial (14,53–15,47)	179
Conclusion	181
2. The Shepherd Going Ahead of the Sheep: 16,1–8	181
2.1 Cohesion of 16,1–8	183
2.1.1 Verse 1	183
2.1.2 Verses 2–4	184
2.1.3 Verses 5–7	185
2.1.4 Verse 8	187
2.2 Coherence of 16,1–8	188
2.2.1 The Women Continue Their Ministry (16,1)	188
2.2.2 The Stone at the Tomb, a hindrance to the Mission (16,2–4)	189
2.2.3 The Young Man Announces the Resurrection and Going Ahead of the Shepherd (16,5–7)	191
2.2.4 The Ministry that Ends in Silence (16,8)	201
2.3 Pragmatic Elements of 16,1–8	205
2.3.1 Communicative Context	205
a. Fulfillment of the Prophecy	205
b. Image of God the Shepherd	205
c. He was and is leading	206
d. The Possibility of a New Vision and Beginning	206
e. With Whom Shall the Reader Identify?	207
2.3.2 Communicative Strategy	207
a. Mend Your Path towards the One Going Ahead	207
b. Flee or Follow?	208
c. See and Follow Him	209
d. An Invitation for a New Beginning with the Resurrected Shepherd	210
e. Announce the Resurrected Shepherd	212
3. Conclusions	212
 Concluding observations	 215
1. The Metaphor of Shepherd in Mark	215
1.1 Jesus Christ as the Shepherd?	215
1.2 The Shepherd of Israel	217
1.2.1 The Disciples Represent the Sheepfold	217
1.2.2 Shepherdless Israel	217
1.3 The Shepherd of the Nations	218

2. Markan Strategy in Presenting Jesus as the Shepherd	219
2.1 Teaching	220
2.2 Nourishing	220
2.3 Guiding/Leading	222
3. The Metaphor of Shepherd as a Paradigm for Mission	224
3.1 A Progressive Mission	224
3.2 Preference for an Inclusive Language	228
Conclusion	231
ABBREVIATIONS	233
BIBLIOGRAPHY	239
AUTHOR INDEX	261