

Contents

Author's Note •	xiii
Karen Horney, M.D. 1885-1952 •
1 • History •	35
2 • Theory •	43
3 • Neurotic Disturbances in Human Relationships I: Love and Sex •	50
4 • Neurotic Disturbances in Human Relationships II: Work and Leisure •	79
5 • The Symbolizing Process I: Formal, Phenom- enological, and Metaphorical Free Association •	101
6 • The Symbolizing Process II: Symbols, the Symbolic Self, and the Self-System •	114
7 • Unconscious Processes •	126
8 • The Actual Situation •	135
9 • The Analyst as Instrument •	147
10 • The Analyst's Understanding •	158
11 • The Doctor-Patient Relationship I: The Transfer- ence-Countertransference and the Transference Neurosis •	169
12 • The Doctor-Patient Relationship II: Communing and Relating •	184
13 • Blockages — Resistance •	208
14 • Working Through •	226
15 • Dreams I: Formal, Phenomenological, and Psychodynamic •	246
16 • Dreams II: The Total Solution of Magic •	258
17 • Dreams III: Self-idealization, the Disillusioning Process, and Working Through •	270
18 • Dreams IV: Fear and Anxiety Dreams •	287
19 • Dreams V: Technique, Attitudes to Dreaming, First Dreams, and Dream Series •	312
20 • Dreams VI: Technique, Crucial Dreams, and Termination Dreams •	333
21 • The Initial Interview I: Opening Contact, Aims, and Practical Arrangements •	347

22 • The Initial Interview II: The Vis-à-Vis Position and the Couch •	362
23 • Aids — Parameters •	375
24 • Interpretation and Insight •	386
25 • Objectives and Termination •	402
26 • Phenomenology and Existentialism I: History, Description, and Theory •	421
27 • Phenomenology and Existentialism II: Human Instances •	432
28 • What is Technique? •	447
29 • Teaching Technique I: History and Training Analysis •	461
30 • Teaching Technique II: Supervision and Teaching •	474
31 • The General Practice of Psychoanalysis I: The Chronic Analyst •	492
32 • The General Practice of Psychoanalysis II: Being and Appearing Healthy and Sick, Thin and Fat •	514
33 • The General Practice of Psychoanalysis III: The Holistic Approach •	538
References •	567
Bibliography •	592
Index •	616