

Contents

Introduction by Lewis R. Wolberg, M.D.	vii
1 Conceptual Perspectives and Current Constructs	1
2 The Training Experience	27
3 The Alternate Session	35
4 Socialization, Activity, and the Alternate Meeting	53
5 Models, Roles, and Individuation of the Patient	73
6 Interaction as Associational Flow	81
7 Autonomy Versus Ritual	95
8 Violence and Sex	111
9 History Is Tradition-Forming	123
10 Oedipal and Pre-oedipal Derivatives	145
11 A Psychotic Episode	155
12 Lateral Transferences in This Training Group	169
13 Elaboration of Feeling of Participants	177
14 The Borderline Patient	187
15 The Nature of the Analytic Contract	209
16 Effect of Absence of Face-to-Face Cues	217

17	Supervision: Education or Treatment?	237
18	The Physical Structure of the Treatment Setting	259
19	Transference Theory: Excerpts from the Later Years	279
20	More Transference Theory: Excerpts from the Later Years	309
21	Termination	337
	References	357
	Index	361