

Contents

Preface
Diemo Landgraf	vii
Acknowledgments	xiii

Part 1 Historical and Philosophical Perspectives

1	On the Notion of Decadence in the FRG and France after 1945—with Examples by Rainer Werner Fassbinder, Botho Strauß, and Richard Millet Diemo Landgraf	3
2	“In the very quick of the nightmare”: Decadence and Mystics of Wilderness in Henry Miller’s Cultural Criticism of Modernity Mario Bosincu	25
3	The Function of Decadence and Ascendance in Analytic Philosophy Jens Lemanski and Konstantin Alogas	49
4	Progress and Decadence—Poststructuralism as Progressivism Gerald Hoffleit	67

Part 2 Decadence and the Politics of Culture and Language

5	The Concept of Decadence as Ideological and Law Enforcement Category in the GDR Torben Ibs	85
---	--	----

- 6 Joual en stock: The Controversial Issue of Language Quality and Autochthonous Standardization in Quebec
Claus D. Pusch 111

Part 3 Literary and Film Studies

- 7 Michelangelo Antonioni's Early "Trilogy of Decadence":
L'avventura (1960), La notte (1961), L'eclisse (1962)
Jakob Willis 133
- 8 Houellebecq's Fin de Siècle: Crisis of Society, Crisis of the Novel—Thematic and Poetological Intertextuality between Michel Houellebecq and Joris-Karl Huysmans
Betül Dilmac 153
- 9 The Shadow of Decadence: The Latin American Boom and the Taboo of the Spanish Novel of the Democratic Period
Pablo Sánchez
Translated from the Spanish language by Jon Regan 171
- 10 Exile and Writing: Alfredo Bryce Echenique and the Decadence of the Myth of Paris
Blanca Navarro Pardiñas
Translated from the Spanish language by Jon Regan 187
- 11 Tradition, (Post)Modernity, and Decadence in Vargas Llosa's Lituma en los Andes and Los cuadernos de don Rigoberto
Diemo Landgraf 205
- About the Authors* 225
- Index of Persons* 229
- Index of Terms* 231