

Contents

Illustrations	x
Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction	1
PART 1: Jews and Christians
1. The Jewish Background	11
From 587 to 140 B.C.	15
Palestine in the Last Century B.C.	18
Sects and Parties	22
The Dispersion	30
2. Jesus of Nazareth	53
Baptism	58
Temptations	60
Jesus and John	61
The Galilean Mission A.D. 28–29	63
Martyr Prophet	69
On to Jerusalem	69
The Last Phase	71
3. Paul and the First Expansion 30–65	85
The Jerusalem Community	87
The Emergence of Paul	91
The Mission	95
The Opposition	101
The Pauline Christ	101
The New Religion and Society	104
Paul and James	106
The Pauline Ministry	106
The Liturgy	107
Baptism and Eucharist	108

CONTENTS

Relations with the Authorities	108
The Neronian Persecution A.D. 64	109
4. The Christian Synagogue 70–135	119
The New Israel and the Old	121
The Christian Mission	126
The Church and Society	131
Sound Doctrine and Its Opponents	134
The Christian Ministry	139
The Liturgy	141
Differing Interpretations	142
The Christians and the Empire	147
5. Opposition Cult 135–80	161
The Roman Empire in the Second Century	164
The Opposition	171
Christian Advance	178
6. Acute Hellenization 135–93	193
The Gnostic Movement	195
Reasons for the Success of Gnosticism	201
The Alexandrian Gnostic Teachers	205
The Gnostic Legacy	210
Marcion	212
Later Developments	217
7. The Emergence of Orthodoxy 135–93	229
The Apologists	234
Irenaeus	244
Emergent Orthodoxy	250
Threats to Unity	251
Conclusion	256
 PART 2: Christianity and the Roman Empire
8. Out of the Shadows 193–235	271
The Severan Dynasty	272
Christianity's Rivals	274
Orthodoxy	281
Revival of Mission	285
Pagan Reaction	293
The Return of Peace	294

CONTENTS

9. Struggle and Advance 235–60	307
Christian Progress	309
Manicheism	314
The Decian Persecution	318
Valerian	324
10. The Third Century: The Western Churches 190–260	337
Latin Christianity	339
11. The Third Century: Christian Platonism of Alexandria and Its Opponents 190–275	367
Christian Platonists	368
12. Church and People in the Third Century	397
Authority and Church Order	398
Bishops and Clergy	403
The Seniores	412
The People	413
Art, Literature, and Ethics	414
Rural Christianity and the First Monks	421
13. The Age of Diocletian 270–305	439
The Pagan Front	440
The Advance of Christianity	444
Diocletian and the Great Persecution	452
14. The Constantinian Revolution 305–30	473
Tetrarchy and Dynasty	474
The Propaganda War	477
The Hinge of Fate 311–13	479
From Milan to Chrysopolis 313–24	484
The Donatists: Pandora’s Box	488
Arius	492
Council of Nicaea	498
Constantinople: Nova Roma	501
PART 3: From Constantine to Chalcedon
15. Toward Byzantinism 330–61	521
Constantine and Athanasius	523
The Council of Sardica 342/43	528
The Search for Equilibrium 343–53	532

CONTENTS

Constantius as Sole Emperor 353–61	534
Constantius and the Quest for a Unifying Creed	538
16. From Pagan to Christian Society 330–60	553
The New Synthesis	554
The Process of Christianization	561
Christianity and the Countryside	571
17. Hero of a Lost Cause: The Emperor Julian 360–63	593
The Early Years	594
The Successful General	598
The Failed Revolution	604
18. New Perspectives in West and East 363–99	615
The West	617
The East	629
19. The North African Dimension 370–430	651
The Donatists	653
Augustine	659
Pelagius and Pelagianism	673
20. Christianity and Barbarism: The West 380–450	699
The End of the Pagan Ideal	701
Claudian	705
Prudentius	706
Priscillian	711
Paulinus	713
Jerome	715
Honoratus	719
John Cassian	719
The Church and the Internal Crisis of the Empire	721
21. The Road to Chalcedon 398–451	741
The Survival of the East Roman Provinces	743
John Chrysostom at Constantinople 398–404	749
Nestorius and Cyril 428–31	752
The Formula of Reunion 433	761
The Interlude 433–46	762
Dioscorus and Eutyches	764
Chalcedon 451	770

CONTENTS

PART 4: The Parting of the Ways
22. The Catholic Recovery in the West 451–536	789
Britain	792
North Africa Under the Vandals	795
Gaul	800
Italy	805
The Acacian Schism and Its Aftermath	807
The Decline of the Ostrogothic Kingdom	813
23. Justinian and the Byzantine Achievement 527–65	827
Justinian's Renewal (Renovatio)	828
The Reoccupation of North Africa 533–34	832
Byzantine Art and Architecture	835
The Emergence of the Monophysite Church 519–31	837
The Emergence of Neo-Chalcedonianism	848
The Three Chapters 544–54	850
The Failure of the Reconquista 555–65	854
24. "And East Is East . . ." 565–604	869
Rome and Constantinople	870
Chalcedonians and Monophysites	873
The Celtic Irruption	877
St. Benedict and Monasticism	881
Pope Gregory I	883
Epilogue	903
General Bibliography	907
APPENDIXES	911
Synopsis of Events	912
Maps	986
	(and endpapers)
Names Index	991
Subject Index	1013