

CONTENTS

Preface	v
List of Illustrations	xiii
A Short List of Books of especial utility to students	xiv

PART I

1. Introductory: 'Bibliographical' evidence. The plan of this book	1
2. The making of a Printed Book. Composition, Imposition, Printing, &c.	6
3. The Printed Book and its parts. Some bibliographical terms explained	25
4. More about imposition. Imposing for folio, octavo, &c. Necessity of a whole gathering being in type at once. Notes on folding, checking correctness of imposition, and on determining whether pages belong to the same forme	29
5. The early Printing-Press	38
6. Changes in the technique of printing. Primitive form of chase. Irregular line-endings. Printing by one page at a time. Non-use of long galleys. Half-sheet imposition. A note on modern impositions. Stereotyping and Electrotyping	53
7. Some subsidiary matters. Signatures, their history and peculiarities. Press-numbers. Catchwords. Foliation and Pagination. The Register. The Title-page. The Colophon	73
8. A Note on Paper	97
9. The Decoration of Books	109
10. The forms in which books have been issued to the public	121

CONTENTS

11. A Miscellany. On division of work between different printers or compositors. The size of editions of early books. Book prices. The Stationers' Register, Term Catalogues, &c., and dates of publication. A note on Censorship and Copyright 128

PART II

1. Some points of bibliographical technique. The description of a book. References to passages in early books 145
2. The formats of books. Folio, Quarto, &c. 164
3. On the meaning of 'edition', 'impression', and 'issue', and on determining whether two books are of the same edition or not 175
4. On bibliographical evidence as to the order of editions 184
5. On dating undated editions and on false dates 200
6. On variations in different copies of the same edition 204
7. On books set in duplicate 214
8. On author's copy, proofs, and proof-corrections 217
9. On cancels, and on additions to sheets already printed 222
10. On Fakes and Facsimiles 231

PART III

1. The extent to which the compositor attempted to follow his copy. The question of setting from dictation 239
2. Errors of the compositor due to misreading the MS., Foul case &c. Errors due to faulty correction. Errors in Imposition, Perfecting, and Folding 252

CONTENTS

APPENDIX

1. A note on Printing, its origin and spread. Some famous presses and publishing houses	264
2. Printing-types. General sketch of their early development. The types in England. The sizes of type-bodies. The em	288
3. Notes on certain characters as used in English printing: f and s; i, j, u, v, w; ligatures; punctuation marks and other signs	309
4. Abbreviations and contractions in early printed books	319
5. On folding in 12mo and 24mo	325
6. On printing in two or more colours	329
7. A short list of some difficult Latin place-names	337
8. A note on Elizabethan Handwriting	341
Index	351