Table of Contents

Note on Transliteration and Transcriptions

Interview Transcription Conventions

Table of Contents

List of Figures

1 Introduction 1

1.1. Why Kerala? 3
1.2. Lesbian, Not Queer 6
1.3. Queer Studies in India 11
1.4. Towards a History of Queer Literature in India 16
1.5. The Sources 19
  1.5.1. Literary Sources 19
  1.5.2. Films 25
  1.5.3. Articles in Newspapers and Magazines 34
  1.5.4. Personal Letters to the Support Organization Sahayatrika 37
  1.5.5. Personal Interviews 39
1.6. The Chapters of this Study 40

2 God’s Own Closet: Women’s Spaces in the “Model State” 43

2.1. Historical Dimensions of Malayali Women’s Spaces 49
2.2. Ladies’ Hostels 54
2.3. Other Physical Spaces 61
2.4. The Female Body as Space 72
2.5. Virtual and Discursive Spaces 75
2.6. Claiming Space, or: The Ambiguity of Visibility 77
2.7. Concluding Remarks 81
3 The Madwoman in the Atrium: Regulating the Kerala Lesbian

3.1. Pathologization

3.1.1. Trope 1: Forlorn, Fatherless Felons (Male Absence)
3.1.2. Trope 2: Angst from Abuse (Male Violence)
3.1.3. Trope 3: Lesbianism is a Disease
3.1.4. Trope 4: Death is the rightful punishment for or predictable result of lesbian desire

3.2. Criminalization

3.3. Prurience and Lesbo-Scopophilia: The Sexualization of the Kerala Lesbian

3.4. Concluding Remarks

4 Kerala’s “Lesbian Suicides”

5 Diaspora and Dislocation: Disavowing the Kerala Lesbian

5.1. Diaspora – Imagined and Real

5.1.1. Outbound: ‘Lesbian Exodus’
5.1.2. Inbound: ‘Lesbian Import’

5.2. Dislocation

5.3. Concluding Remarks

6 Conclusion

Appendix

Bibliography