

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART I. THE DEVELOPMENT AND STANDARDIZATION OF THE OBJECT-FITTING TEST

	PAGE
CHAPTER I. THE TESTING SITUATION IN THE PRESCHOOL FIELD	3
Introduction—Nonverbal elements in verbal scales—Non- verbal elements for which separate norms have been pro- posed—Ten criteria of a good test for young children— Criticism of available test elements—Special needs for non- language tests—Statement of the problem—Summary
CHAPTER II. THE ORIGIN AND CONSTRUCTION OF THE TEST	26
Genesis of the study—Source of the materials used— Problems incurred in the preliminary construction of the test—Problems incurred in the selection of subjects— Summary.
CHAPTER III. THE STANDARDIZATION OF THE TEST	39
Preliminary considerations—Raw data on last responses— Some unsatisfactory scoring methods—Point-score method with partial credit for partial success—Summary
CHAPTER IV. CONCLUSIONS AND A FORWARD LOOK	63
Meeting the criteria—Meeting the special needs—Future uses of the Object-Fitting Test as a scientific instrument
PART II. MANUAL OF DIRECTIONS FOR THE ADMINIS- TRATION OF THE OBJECT-FITTING TEST
CHAPTER V. MANUAL OF DIRECTIONS	69
The purpose of the test—The test material—Specific directions for giving and scoring—Derivation of norms— Summary
BIBLIOGRAPHY	83
INDEX	87