
Contents

7 A contribution to the art of being

- 7 An eminent example
- 8 Our aims
- 8 The joy of knowing yourself
- 8 Play and reality
- 9 The science of behaviour

11 Creativity and intellectual level

39 Intellectual ability

- 39 G. Stanley Hall: His vocation and successes
- 40 Elements of the intellect
- 40 From the G factor to primary abilities
- 41 Verbal abilities
- 42 Numerical abilities
- 42 Visual-spatial abilities
- 49 Reason and memory
- 54 Intelligence as a synthesis of abilities
- 72 Exercises for "Intellectual Giants"

81 Tests of intelligence, aptitude and interest

- 81 Heredity or environment?
- 81 Parents and children
- 82 From school to the family
- 82 The need for synthesis
- 84 But what is intelligence?
- 106 Aptitudes
- 122 Evaluating our aptitudes
- 122 Age
- 123 Arguments for and against the tests
- 124 Success

141 Theories of personality

- 141 Beyond the primary abilities
- 142 Intelligence and personality
- 142 Theories of personality
- 165 Methods and techniques
- 166 The specific nature of behaviour

167 Games appendix

- 167 Filling in the corners

179 Sources

181 Sources of the games and tests

183 Index of games
