

Contents

Introduction	1
1 From God's Speech to Islamic Law: Defining the Qur'ān	17
The Miraculousness and Inimitability of the Qur'ān	19
The Clear and the Ambiguous in the Qur'ān (Muḥkamāt Wa Mutashābihāt)	32
Brief Review	46
The Abrogating and the Abrogated (Al-Nāsikh Wa-al-Mansūkh)	49
Conclusion	67
2 Re-creating the Prophetic Model: Ḥadīth as the Gateway to the Sunna	73
Multiple-Chained Transmissions (Mutawātir) and Well-Established (Mashhūr) Transmissions	77
The Single Transmission (Al-Khabar al-Wāḥid)	84
Brief Review	94
Abrogation of the Qur'ān through the Sunna	96
Conclusion	109
3 The Limits of Considered Opinion (Ra'y):
Analogy and Precedent	113
The Bedrock of Qiyās : Determining the Ratio Legis ('illa)	115
Taqlīd of the Mujtahid	129
Taṣwīb of the Mujtahid	137
Conclusion	145
Conclusion	149
Appendix	159
Bibliography of Arabic Sources	165
Bibliography of Non-Arabic Sources	167
Index	171