

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Foreword by Dr. MARGARET LOWENFELD	xi

PART I. INTRODUCTION

Chapter 1. The Idea of the Book	3
Chapter 2. History of the World Technique, 1925-68	6
Chapter 3. Administration: Materials, Instructions and Recording	13

PART II. USE IN PERSONALITY DIAGNOSIS

Chapter 4. The Search for Developmental Norms	21
Chapter 5. Norms for Ages 4-8 Years	35
Chapter 6. Clinical and "Normal" Worlds of Children	42
Chapter 7. Clinical and "Normal" Worlds of Adults	48
Chapter 8. The Sand-tray world as a Projective Technique with Mental Defectives	56
Chapter 9. Can Worlds be Scored?	69
Chapter 10. Comparison of Results of the World Test with Teachers' Judgments Concerning Children's Personality Adjustment	86

PART III. USE IN PSYCHOTHERAPY

Chapter 11. The World as Non-verbal Thinking	95
Chapter 12. Lowenfeld's World Material and Child Psychotherapy	106
Chapter 13. Worlds in Sweden: Therapy at the Erica Foundation	116
Chapter 14. The "Little Worlds" in Portugal: Complementary Use with Drawing	124
Chapter 15. Dreams in Sand	128
Chapter 16. The Use of Worlds in Two Cases of Encephalitis and Meningitis in Early Childhood	133

Chapter 17. Two Cases: Asthma and Enuresis in Early Childhood	139
Chapter 18. Three Adolescents: Use of Lowenfeld Worlds in the Treatment of Nightmares, Depression and Schizophrenia	145

PART IV. USE IN RESEARCH

Chapter 19. The Importance of Sand in the World Technique: an Experiment	157
Chapter 20. The Use of "Worlds" to Study the Integrative Ability of Children with a Motor Handicap	163
Chapter 21. Aspects of Personality Adjustment in Children with a Motor Handicap	168
Chapter 22. The Relative Personality Adjustment of Severely Deaf and Partially Deaf Children	174

PART V. THE POSITION OF THE WORLD IN RELATION TO OTHER PROJECTIVE TECHNIQUES

Chapter 23. The Position of the World in Relation to Other Projective Methods: Classification	181
Chapter 24. The World as it Functions Along with Other Tests: an Example from Assessment after Lobectomy	185
Chapter 25. The World Compared with the Village, Sceno and Other Structured Play Techniques	192
Chapter 26. Status of the World and Some Undeveloped Resources for Social Psychology	207
Bibliography	213
Name Index	219
Subject Index	221