
Contents

General Editors' Preface	vii
1 Finding a theme	1
Making a start	1
What is a theme?	2
Choosing a passage to study	2
How to study	4
Wuthering Heights	5
'Do Not Go Gentle into That Good Night'	14
2 Looking at characters	21
Characters and themes	21
Elizabeth Bennet from Pride and Prejudice	22
Studying characters from plays	34
3 Structure	37
What is structure?	37
Basic structure in novels and plays	38
Othello	39
Structure in more complicated texts	45
Structure in poems	47
'The Faithful Swallow'	48
4 Style and Imagery	53
What is style?	53
How to analyse style	54
'The Wreck of the Deutschland'	54
How imagery works	57
Romeo and Juliet	58
5 Irony	66
What is irony?	66

What irony is not	66
What to do when you find irony	67
How to describe irony	74
6 Writing an essay I	77
The literature examination	77
The essay question	78
7 Writing an essay II	87
Making a case	87
How to write a simple paragraph	88
How to write more complicated paragraphs	92
Further reading	96