

Contents

Foreword by Wayne C. Booth	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Introduction	xv
Part I: Ethical Criticism and Literary Theory	1
1 Premises on Art and Morality John Gardner	3
2 The Moral Connections of Literary Texts Abraham B. Yehoshua	11
3 Why Ethical Criticism Can Never Be Simple Wayne C. Booth	23
4 Ethical Criticism: What It Is and Why It Matters Marshall Gregory	37
5 Against Ethical Criticism Richard A. Posner	63
6 Who Is Responsible in Ethical Criticism? Wayne C. Booth	79
7 The Absence of the Ethical: Literary Theory and Ethical Theory Martha C. Nussbaum	99
8 Evaluative Discourse: A New Turn toward the Ethical David Parker	107

9	The Moral and the Aesthetical: Literary Study and the Social Order Stephen L. Tanner	115
Part II: Philosophy, Religion, and Literature		129
10	Reading for Life Anthony Cunningham	131
11	The "Ancient Quarrel": Literature and Moral Philosophy Martha C. Nussbaum	139
12	Stories and Morals Nina Rosenstand	153
13	The Absence of Stories: Filling the Void in Ethics Marianne Jennings	165
14	Literature and the Catholic Perspective Mary R. Reichardt	173
15	Literature and Protestantism John J. Han	181
16	Something to Measure By: Quaker Values in Literature Barbara A. Heavilin	189
17	Literary Criticism and Religious Values Bruce W. Young	197
Part III: Writers' Responsibilities		211
18	A Writer's Duty John Updike	213
19	The Writer's Moral Sense Flannery O'Connor	215
20	Imaginative Writing and the Jewish Experience Bernard Malamud	219
21	The Problem of Evil in Fiction Orson Scott Card	225
22	Poetry, Politics, and Morality Jay Parini	231
23	Art and Ethics? Joyce Carol Oates	239

24	What Violence in Literature Must Teach Us	241
	Jack Harrell
25	Ethics and Literature	251
	Charles Johnson
	Part IV: Readers and Ethical Criticism	263
26	The Case against Huck Finn	265
	John H. Wallace
27	Why We Still Need Huckleberry Finn	273
	Dudley Barlow
28	Huckleberry Finn: An Amazing, Troubling Book	279
	Toni Morrison
29	The Ethical Dimensions of Richard Wright's Native Son	289
	Stephen K. George
30	Sethe's Choice: Beloved and the Ethics of Reading	299
	James Phelan
31	Steinbeck, Johnson, and the Master/Slave Relationship	315
	Richard E. Hart
32	Censorship and the Classroom	329
	Georgia A. Newman
	Notes	339
	Glossary	369
	Selected Bibliography	377
	Permissions	379
	Index	383
	About the Contributors	397