

Contents

Contributors	xv
I. ISSUES AND IMPLICATIONS	1
Sidney Greenbaum
II. HISTORICAL BACKGROUND	7
1. The conquests of English	9
Richard W. Bailey
2. English in the Middle Ages: the struggle for acceptability	20
William A. Kretzschmar, Jr.
3. Renaissance English (1525–1640)	30
Manfred Görlach
4. Attitudes toward language in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries	41
James C. Stalker
5. Natural language and Orwellian intervention	48
Randolph Quirk
III. ATTITUDES AND USAGE: U.S.A., BRITAIN, AND CANADA	55
1. The mirror and the template: cloning public opinion	57
John Algeo
2. Language as symbol in the death-of-language books	65
James C. Stalker
3. Public opinion and language	72
Anne Ruggles Gere

xii	Contents
	4. Users and abusers: on the death of English	80
	Julia Penelope
	5. Unconscious attitudes toward linguistic variation	92
	Edward Finegan
	6. What is good writing? Views from the public	99
	Lester Faigley
	7. Newspaper stylebooks: strictures teach tolerance	106
	Allan A. Metcalf
	8. Standards of English usage in language tests	116
	John B. Carroll
	9. The Plain English Movement	125
	Janice C. Redish
	10. Attitudes of the National Council of Teachers of English	139
	Harold B. Allen
	11. Bilingualism in the United States: present attitudes in the light of past policies	147
	Ofelia Garcia
	12. English, my English?	159
	Janet Whitcut
	13. Usage problems in British and American English	166
	Robert F. Ilson
	14. Attitudes to Canadian English	183
	Ian Pringle

IV. ATTITUDES AND USAGE: ENGLISH IN THE WORLD CONTEXT 207

	1. Institutionalized second-language varieties	211
	Braj B. Kachru
	2. "Good usage" in an EFL context	227
	Manfred Görlach and Konrad Schröder

3. Fantasti! Israeli attitudes towards English	233
Robert L. Cooper
4. The perception and evaluation of varieties of English	242
L. W. Lanham
5. Symbol of powerlessness and degeneracy, or symbol of solidarity and truth? Paradoxical attitudes toward pidgins and creoles	252
John R. Rickford and Elizabeth Closs Traugott
V. REACTIONS: PERSONAL AND PROFESSIONAL	263
1. The question of correctness	265
Morton W. Bloomfield
2. Some audibility gaps	271
Donald Davie
3. A linguist to the lay audience	280
Raven I. McDavid, Jr.
4. Between the lines	293
Susan P. Miller
5. Language attitudes and self-fulfilling prophecies in the elementary school	302
Jerrie Scott and Geneva Smitherman
6. English language in the secondary school	315
R. Baird Shuman
7. Layman and shaman; or, Now about that elephant again	327
James Sledd
Index	343