

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
1 / INTRODUCTION	1
1. The Goals of Linguistics	1
2. The Aims of This Book	6
Suggestions for Further Study	8
2 / “THE WALRUS AND THE ALLIGATOR”	10
Problems and Suggestions for Further Study	29
3 / THE PROPOSITIONAL CORE OF ENGLISH	32
1. Sentences of the Propositional Core	32
2. Subcategories of Propositional Core Sentences	34
3. Relationships to Sentences outside the Core	35
4. Early Generative-Transformational Theory	40
5. Predicates and Variables	46
Problems and Suggestions for Further Study	52

4 / ROLES AND ROLE STRUCTURE	59
1. Later Generative-Transformational Theory	59
2. Roles	61
3. Role Structures	66
4. Other Examples of Role Structures	71
5. Deletion of Roles	79
6. The Analysis of Prepositions	84
Problems and Suggestions for Further Study	89
5 / THE INTRODUCTION OF NOMINAL EXPRESSIONS	101
1. Role Structures in Predicate Nominal Sentences	102
2. The Meaning of Predicate Nouns	104
3. The Introduction of Nonpredicate Nouns	106
4. More on the Introduction of Nonpredicate Nouns	108
5. Some Problems of Reference	112
6. Various Uses for Nominal Expressions	115
7. Pronouns	117
8. Additional Arguments that Pronouns Are Introduced Directly	119
9. Collective and Plural Nouns and the Concept of Deep Structure Groups	120
10. Definite, Indefinite, and Generic Expressions	123
11. Concluding Remarks	126
Problems and Suggestions for Further Study	127
6 / SYNTACTIC TRANSFORMATIONS	133
1. Examples of Transformations	134
2. The Introduction of Nominal Expressions: Relative-Clause Formation	141
3. Transformational Reduction of Relative Clauses	145
4. The Introduction of Nominal Expressions: The Replacement of Pronouns by Nouns	147
5. Some Restrictions on Relative-Clause Formation and Reduction	148

6.	Transformations Relating to Sentence Types outside the Propositional Core: Interrogative Sentences	151
7.	Imperative Sentences	155
8.	Passive Sentences	159
9.	Negative Sentences	161
10.	More on Negative Sentences	164
11.	The Movement of Relative and Content Clauses	.170
12.	Limitations on the Movement of Content Clauses	172
13.	The Formation of Infinitive Clauses	173
14.	The Syntactic Analysis of Some Helping Verbs and of Tense	186
15.	The Creation of Subjects and Objects	191
	Problems and Suggestions for Further Study	195
	 Bibliography	 209
	Index	215