

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Abbreviations	xii
Introduction: Narrative Worlds, Symbolic Forms, and Social Arrangements	1
The Case in Point	2
Texts and Contexts	6
History as Story	10
Paul's Narrative World	14
The Sociology of Narrative Worlds	17
The Project	30
1. From Letter to Story—and Back: Toward a Narratology and Sociology of Letters	43
A Trial Run	44
On the Sociology of Letters	53
The Letter to Philemon: From Letter to Story—and Back	65
2. Social Structures and Social Relations in the Story of Philemon	89
Social Positions and Their Relations: A Preliminary Survey	90
Deepening the Survey	93
The Worldly Roles: Master, Slave, Debtee, Debtor, Prisoner	93
The Churchly Roles	102
Fellow Worker and Partner	103
Some Sociological Implications of Paul's "Work" Metaphors	109

CONTENTS

Paul's Roles	124
Ambassador and Prisoner of Christ Jesus	125
Father and Debtee	128
Commanding and Appealing, Rhetoric and Reality	131
Structure, Anti-Structure, and Paul's Social Style	151
The Structures of the World and the Anti-Structures of the Church	153
Structure and Anti-Structure in the Anti-Structural Church	158
Mapping the Social Terrain of Paul's Narrative World	163
3. Symbolic Universe and Social Relations in the Story of Philemon	200
The Kinship and Master-Slave Systems: A Preliminary Survey	206
Kinship Relations in Paul's Symbolic Universe	215
Adam and Christ	217
Abraham and Christ	223
Jesus Christ and the Son of God	230
Master-Slave Relations in Paul's Symbolic Universe	240
Mediation, Internalization, Motivation, and Action	258
Conclusion: Some Reflections on Paul's Letter and Its Story	287
Index of Biblical Passages	304