

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	1
Purpose of the guide; selection and evaluation of a dictionary; checkpoints for evaluating a dictionary
1 Standard and encyclopaedic dictionaries	9
Large, one-volume works with comprehensive coverage of established and current English, and dictionaries with extensive biographical, geographical and other encyclopaedic entries and illustrations
2 Concise or abridged dictionaries	34
Medium-sized or 'desk' dictionaries with good coverage of established and current English, and medium-sized dictionaries with biographical, geographical and other encyclopaedic entries and illustrations
3 Pocket, paperback and compact dictionaries	53
Small to medium-sized portable dictionaries with restricted coverage of established English or emphasis on current English
4 Learners' dictionaries	73
Dictionaries for schoolchildren and overseas learners of English, and dictionaries offering extensive guidance on current English language usage and practice
5 Thesauri and synonym dictionaries	105
Classified and alphabetically arranged lists of related words

6	Language guides	114
	Guides to modern English usage, grammar, pronunciation, spelling and vocabulary, and 'good' written and spoken English
7	Miscellaneous dictionaries and wordlists	124
	Selected dictionaries and wordlists of: American English; anagrams; antonyms; Australian English; Canadian English; catchphrases; Citizens' Band; clichés; collective nouns; colloquialisms; confusable words; crosswords and other word-games; dialect and regional words; eponyms; etymology and word origins; euphemisms; foreign words and phrases; homographs and homophones; idioms; Indian English; -isms; Jamaican English; jargon; mottoes; names; new words; New Zealand English; nicknames; -ologies; -phobias; phrasal verbs; place-names; pronunciation; puns; rhyming; Scots; Scrabble; slang; South African English; spelling; toponyms; trade-names; troublesome words; unusual words; vulgarities; weasel words; Yiddish
	Appendix	158
	Recommendations
	Index	171