

Contents

---

Acknowledgments vii

A Note on the Translations xi

Introduction 3

1 Universal Myths of Origin: Boccaccio and the Golden Age Motif 24

The Classical Golden Age Traditions 29

Boccaccio's Elegiac Primitivism 39

Boccaccio's Rationalistic Reevaluation of the Golden Age 44

The Escape to Paradise 70

2 Local Myths of Origin: The Birth of the City and the Self 77

Physical Restoration: The Fertile Loam of Tuscany 77

Political Restoration and Miscegenation: Ex Pluribus Unum 89

Boccaccio's Fruitful Bastardy 121

3 The Myth of a New Beginning: Boccaccio's Palingenetic Paradise 141

Tabula Rasa and Saitic Seed: The Effacement and Replacement of Knowledge 141

The Restoration of Knowledge: The Poet as Pedagogical Pimp 155

Nel Cospetto degli Uomini: The Prophylactic Peep-show of Decameron VI 181

4 The Myth of Historical Foresight: Babel and Beyond 210

On the Shoulders of (Blasphemous) Giants: The Limits of Knowledge 210

Through the Literary Looking-glass: The Textual Monument as Mirror 217

Notes 243

Works Consulted 329

Index 347