

Table of Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Introduction	1
Chapter 1. A Poetry of Mysticism: Solomon Ibn Gabirol, Maulana Jalaluddin Rumi, and Rainer Maria Rilke	7
Chapter 2. Words Turn into Stone: Haruki Murakami's after the quake	33
Chapter 3. The Triptych between Heaven and Hell: The Case of Bosch, Beckmann, and Bacon	41
Chapter 4. Matsuo Basho, Suthorn Pho, and Contemporary World Travel Haibun	61
Chapter 5. Altered States: The Artistic Quest in The Stone Flower and La Sylphide	73
Chapter 6. Ra'anana Levy's Metaphysical Space	81
Chapter 7. The Kindness of Strangers: Epiphany and Social Communion in Paul Theroux's Travel Writing	89
Chapter 8. The Songlines: Dreaming the Ancestors and Sustaining the World in Aboriginal Art	101
Chapter 9. Big Mind: The Nature of Consciousness as Internal Space in Transpersonal Experience	109
Chapter 10. Traveling to other Worlds: Visitation to the Heavens as Transpersonal Experience in Rock Art	119

Chapter 11.	Haiku Mainstream: The Path of Traditional Haiku in America	127
Chapter 12.	Spaciousness as a Key Element in Haiku	137
	Note on the Lectures	145
	Notes	147