

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
A Most Brilliant Talker Elizabeth Healey	i
The Romance of the Scientist: an Interview with Mr. H.G. Wells Arthur H. Lawrence	2
A Genial Personality Geoffrey West	7
H.G. Wells and his Family M.M. Meyer	9
The Picture of an Optimist Berta Ruck	28
Dramatising a Wells Novel Compton Mackenzie	30
H.G. Wells at Easton Glebe Margaret Cole	34
Wells as seen by his Friends Frank Swinnerton	37
A Literary Hero Fenner Brockway	51
H.G. Wells Bertrand Russell	53
A Lively and Vigorous Host Frank Swinnerton	56
H.G. Wells Lance Sieveking	60
Apostle of a World Society Arthur Salter	70
H.G. Wells Julian Huxley	78
A Name with which to Conjure Ernest Benn	83
Shaw and Wells Kingsley Martin	84
Wells as seen by his Publisher Fredric Warburg	97
A Voluminous Writer Francis Williams	104
A Wise and Practical Man J.L. Hodson	107
A Complete Exposé of this Notorious Literary Humbug H.G. Wells	108
My Auto-Obituary H.G. Wells	117
Index	120