

Table of Contents

1. Introduction.....	7
1.1. The Sociology of Science.....	7
1.2. The Sociology of Sociology.....	8
1.3. The Present Study.....	10
1.31. Purpose.....	10
1.32. Professionalization.....	15
1.33. Comparative Material.....	14
1.34. Summary.....	17
2. The Foundation and Institutional Growth of Sociology in America.....	18
2.1. General.....	18
2.2. The Foundation.....	20
2.21. Journals.....	20
2.22. Institutionalized Positions.....	22
2.23. Professional Societies.....	23
2.3. The Growth and Present Situation.....	24
2.31. Institutionalized Positions.....	24
2.32. Sociological Publications.....	32
2.33. Professional Societies.....	33
2.34. Students and Degrees.....	37
2.35. Research Funds.....	39
2.4. Intellectual Origins.....	42
3. The Foundation and Institutional Growth of Sociology in Germany.....	49
3.1. General.....	49
3.2. The Foundation.....	49
3.21. Journals.....	49
3.22. Institutionalized Positions.....	51
3.23. Professional Societies.....	53

3.3.	The Growth and Present State of the Profession.....	54
3.31.	Institutionalized Positions.....	54
3.32.	Sociological Publications.....	59
3.33.	Professional Societies.....	62
3.34.	Students and Degrees.....	64
3.35.	Research Funds.....	67
3.4.	Intellectual Orientation.....	69
3.41.	The Period Prior to 1880.....	70
3.42.	The Period 1880 - 1914.....	73
3.43.	The Period 1918 - 1933.....	74
3.44.	The Period after 1948.....	77
4.	Science -- Society -- Sociology.....	80
4.1.	Science and Society.....	80
4.2.	Sociology and Science.....	87
4.3.	Sociology and Society.....	95
4.4.	Science -- Technology -- Legitimation	107
4.5.	Science and the University.....	116
4.6.	Sociological Knowledge and Society..:	123
5.	Comparative Developmental Expectations....	137
5.1.	A Note of Caution.....	137
5.2.	Basic Assumptions.....	141
5.3.	Professionalization.....	144
5.31.	Some Points of Contrast.....	144
5.32.	Some Points of Comparison.....	159
5.4.	Summary.....	162
	Appendix.....	168
	Bibliography.....	180