

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Foreword Ali Smith	viii
1. Introduction Emma Young and James Bailey	1
2. The Elusive Melody: Music and Trauma in New Woman Short Stories Maura Dunst	15
3. Beyond the Haunted House? Modernist Women's Ghost Stories and the Troubling of Modernity Emma Liggins	32
4. Potboilers or 'Glimpses' of Reality? The Cultural and the Material in the Modernist Short Story Rebecca Bowler	50
5. War and the Short Story: Elizabeth Bowen Adam Piette	66
6. 'Haunted, whether we like it or not': The Ghost Stories of Muriel Spark James Bailey	81
7. Disaggregative Character Identity and the Politics of Aesthetic In-betweenness in Angela Carter's Short Narratives Michelle Ryan-Sautour	96
8. New Waves of Interest: Women's Short Story Writing in the Late Twentieth Century Ailsa Cox	114

9. Feminist F(r)iction: Short Stories and Postfeminist Politics at the Millennial Moment Emma Young	133
10. Class as Destiny in the Short Stories of Tessa Hadley Sue Vice	148
11. Address, Temporality and Misdelivery: The Postal Effects of Ali Smith's Short Stories Ben Davies	163
12. Housewives and Half-Stories: A Question of Genre and Gender in Microfiction Holly Howitt-Dring	179
13. Postscript: British Women's Short Story Writing Clare Hanson	193
Contributor Biographies	199
Index	202