

contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xvi
PART ONE: IMAGE AND BELIEF IN SCIENCE FICTION
1. Icons of Wonder	3
Myth and Speculation. . . A Historical Digression. . . Science Fiction and the Cult of Rationality. . . The Known and the Unknown. . . The Icons of Science Fiction. . . The "Sense of Wonder". . . The Evolution of New Icons
2. The Image of the Barrier	30
Barriers and Portals. . . The Barrier as Puzzle. . . The Barrier and Cultural Isolation
PART TWO: IMAGES OF ENVIRONMENT
3. Icon of the Spaceship	55
The Rocket and the Hearth. . . The "Universe" Tradition. . . The Spaceship Family. . . The Human Spaceship
4. Icon of the City	86
The City as Babylon. . . Evolution of the Science Fiction City. . . The Imperial City. . . The Technological City. . . Arcology. . . The Space City
5. Icon of the Wasteland	125
The Transformed Landscape. . . The Evolution of the New Order. . . The Rediscovery of Technology. . . The Cycles of History

PART THREE: IMAGES OF HUMANITY

6. Icon of the Robot	151
Rebellious Machines. . . The Misused Tool. . . The Human Imperative. . . The Re-creation of Humanity
7. Icon of the Monster	184
A Hierarchy of Monsters. . . Mineral Beings. . . Vegetable Beings. . . Animals. . . Aliens. . . Transformed Humans. . . Telepaths and Telekineticists
Afterword	225
Notes	231
Index	241