

Contents

I.	The Paradox of the Sacred	3
II.	The Tradition of the Sacred in the West	12
III.	The Ambiguities of Secularization: Modern Transformations of the Kingdom in Nietzsche, Ibsen, Beckett, and Stevens	34
IV.	The One and the Many: The Ambiguous Challenge of Being in the Poetry of Yeats and Rilke	88
V.	A Darkness Shining in Brightness: James Joyce and the Obscure Soul of the World	111
VI.	The Perilous Journey to Wholeness in Thomas Mann	157
VII.	The Way Up and the Way Down: The Redemption of Time in T. S. Eliot's "Ash Wednesday" and Four Quartets	194
VIII.	W. H. Auden: The Ambiguity of the Sacred	237
IX.	Conclusion	264
	Bibliography	271
	Index	277